Probable Prussian Advance Toward Tours.

Operations in the North and East of France.

THE SIEGE OF PARIS.

The Prussians Driven from their Advance Positions—Proclamation by Gambetta Announcing the Fact.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—Minister GAMBETTA has issued the following proclamation: "Inhabitants of Tours—I announce to you with inexpressible satisfaction, that on the 12th inst. the more than ever heroic people of Paris, growing impatient behind their ramparts, have determined to march forward against the enemy. Here is the bulletin of their first victory: On the entire zone around the city, the Prussians have been driven out of all the positions which they had been occupying since three weeks. Toward St. Denis they have been driven away beyond Stains, Pierrefette and Dugny. On the east side, Joinville, Creteil, Bambigny and the plateau of Avron, have been recaptured. They have been forced from Le Bas-Meudon and St. Cloud, and thrown back on Versailles. The enemy know now what a people will do who are determined to save their institutions and their honor. I invite the provinces to do their duty as Paris has done hers. Vive Paris! Vive la France! Vive la Republique!"

Further Details of the Operations about Paris—A Radical Movement in the City Suppressed.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The terrible artillery fire of Fort du Mont Valérien has literally swept the country round about. For a circuit of six kilometres the Prussian works have been destroyed. All the batteries that the Prussians have sought to erect against Mont Valérien have been annihilated. The Chateau of Meudon has also been destroyed. The Prussian engineers have been driven from Clamart, Meudon and Montretout. Villejuif and Cacham have both been recovered by the French. On the north the Prussians have been driven back as far as Deuil and Bonnenil. The entire peninsula around Genvilliers has been freed from the Prussians by several strong cavalry reconnoissances, and is now in French hands again. On the east of Paris a lively cannonade has been maintained toward Bondy. The Prussians have also been driven from Champigny, more than three miles east of Vincennes. The Prussian circle around Paris is therefore expanding daily instead of contracting, and the Parisians are greatly encouraged.

A RADICAL MOVEMENT.

Demonstrations have lately occurred in Paris favorable to a radical change in the Government. Their origin was ascribed to GUSTAVE FLOURENS and LOUIS BLANC. The movement was utterly insignificant.

ANOTHER DISPATCH.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—One of the gunners on the Paris fortifications has particularly distinguished himself by the accuracy with which he points his guns. He has thus far frustrated all the efforts of the Prussians to construct offensive works within range of his guns. He is an Alsatian, named CHRISTIAN. The authority reporting this mentions that the Prussians have not yet been able to plant a single battery near enough to disturb any part of Paris. A steady fire has recently been maintained from Forts Mont du Valérien and D'Issy. The Prussians have been compelled to retreat from the fire of these forts behind the plateaux of Meudon and St. Cloud. The morale of the French soldiers is excellent. They are drilling constantly.

THE GARIBALDIS.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—MENOTTI GARIBALDI has arrived at Marseilles, on the way to Paris. RICCIOTTI is also expected at that city.

GERMAN REJOICINGS TO COME.

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—Arrangements have been completed in most of the German towns for bonfires, illuminations, fire-works and bell-ringing, to celebrate the entrance of the German Army into Paris.

Prussian Confirmation of the Destructive Fire—A French Sortie Repulsed.

VERSAILLES, Oct. 18, via BERLIN, Oct. 14.—The French have shelled and wantonly fired the Palace of St. Cloud. Ten French battalions made a sortie from Paris today. They were easily repulsed by the Second Bavarian Corps, which lost only nineteen men.

NEWS FROM WITHIN THE CITY.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—It is reported that M. KERATRY left Paris in a balloon and landed in safety. On the day of his departure a decree appeared suppressing the Prefecture of Police. The Danish Minister has arrived here from Paris. As soon as the bombardment of the capital commences all the representatives of the foreign Powers will come to Tours.

STORES OF THE GARRISON.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The land around Fort Mont du Valerien was regarded as the "garden spot" of Paris. Before the investment of Paris, the commander of the fort employed his men digging the potatoes and collecting the other crops, all of which were stored in the fortress.

PRUSSIAN DESERTER.

LONDON, Oct. 14—Noon.—A dispatch from Versailles, dated yesterday, via Berlin, today, has just been received, and contains the following news:

"The Court-martial in the Prussian lines makes short work of deserters. Prince FREDERICK CHARLES occupies the house of Prince MOSKOWA. The Royal head-quarters are at the west of the beleaguered city, and those of the Crown Prince to the east."

METZ.

Bazaine's Latest Sortie—A Sortie Under Canrobert—The Prussian Positions.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from the Sub-Prefect of Pont L'Evegne, dated on Wednesday, (12th,) fully confirms the reports of successful sorties by Marshal BAZAINE. He had burnt five villages, which had given shelter to the Prussians, dislodged the enemy from several positions, and cut to pieces four regiments of cavalry and several battalions. At the same time Gen. CANROBERT made a successful sortie on the left bank of the Moselle.

PRUSSIAN POSITIONS.

TOURS, Oct 12.—Advices from Metz show that the Prussians occupy a cordon of villages around the city, but hold no position within a distance of twenty kilometres of the fortifications. Marshal BAZINE made a sortie on Saturday last in which he captured 600 oxen and 500 sheep from the enemy.

MUTINY.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Prussians report that a mutiny is imminent among the French soldiers at Metz.

DISEASE.

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—Later news has been received from Metz. Dysentery, scurvy, bronchitis and other diseases are prevalent in the city. All able-bodied citizens have been compelled to serve in the defense of the city.

LE BOEUF.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—There has been much anxiety recently about the French General, LE BOEUF. The correspondent of the Standard today says he is in Metz, and has a command under Marshal BAZAINE.

PREPARING FOR WINTER.

Wooden huts for the troops are arriving at the Prussian position below Metz.

BATTLE OF ORLEANS.

Official Report of the French General—The French Dispute the Ground Inch by Inch—Transit of the Loire in Good Order.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—The General commanding the Fifteenth Corps makes the following report:

LA FESLE ST. AUBIN, Oct. 13.—Yesterday the enemy continued to advance toward Orleans. Our troops, who were on the road to Paris, and had taken part the day before in the battle at Arthenay, gave way. A brigade of the Third Division, who tried to oppose the enemy's advance, being constantly opposed by forces more numerous, and a superior artillery, had to fall back on Orleans, disputing the ground foot by foot. I was obliged, in order to check the enemy's progress, to go forward personally with three battalions of the reserve belonging to the Second Division. The enemy was checked for three hours, but at last we were broken and overcome by their shells. After very sharp fighting, which does honor to our army, I determined to evacuate Orleans and to withdraw to the left bank of the Loire. Our retreat, which was not molested, was effected with coolness and in good order.

L'ORLEANAIS.

Operations Between Tours and Paris—Bourbaki in Tours—Enthusiasm of the Volunteers—Activity of the Government.

TOURS, Oct. 14—Evening.—The news of the successful sortie of the Parisians causes intense excitement. All the troops here left this afternoon, to join the forces opposing the enemy near Orleans and Chateaudun. Among these reinforcements are the Francs-Tireurs from Bordeaux, and the south of France, who marched through the streets to the depot singing patriotic songs. They were wildly cheered by the people, and the enthusiasm was unbounded. As they reached the station they were met by Gen. BOURBAKI, who had just arrived, accompanied by M. CREMIEUX; and the soldiers and citizens joined in an impromptu ovation to the General and the Minister. The scene was most impressive.

ABOUT ORLEANS.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—The following official dispatches have been received at the Ministry of the Interior:

MER, ON THE RAILWAY BETWEEN TOURS AND ORLEANS, Oct. 14.

No Prussians are at Beaugency, but they have occupied Marny in force.

ANOTHER STORY.

It is reported, unofficially, this morning that the Prussians seem to be falling back from this side of Orleans. They are no longer in Beaugency and Meung. These towns are nearly fifteen miles south of Orleans, and are the most extreme points in this direction yet reached by the enemy.

ACTIVITY OF THE GOVERNMENT.

Minister GAMBETTA works constantly, not with the civil administration, but with the military chiefs, his first object being the organization of the armed forces of the country. When that has been accomplished he will turn his attention to political matters. The Government has issued a proclamation to the people of the provinces, showing how the enemy treat the population of the territory they occupy. It charges that they first buy, then take, and finally pillage. The proclamation is to be placarded in all the communes.

THE COUNT DE CHAMBORD.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Prussians are levying heavy contributions on the people around Beauvais, in the Department of Oise. The Count DE CHAMBORD has issued a patriotic address to the Pontifical Zouaves, who participated in the battle at Orleans a few days ago. Though they fought magnificently, he said, the Nationals and Mobiles merited equal praise.

CHATEAUDEAU.

TOURS, Oct. 12, via LONDON, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from Bonneval, on the Loire, today, (the 12th,) reports that the Prussians lately at Villecumblam are now moving toward Chateaudun, where the National Guards are ready to receive them. The rolling stock of the railway has been sent to Vendome.

THE NORTH.

Opening of the Bombardment of Soissons—The Fighting at St. Quentin—Brittany—Rouen.

ST. QUENTIN, Oct. 13.—The Prussians have commenced to bombard Soissons. The town is able and prepared to stand a siege.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The details of the fighting before St. Quentin have been received, and furnish, according to one of the journals, "a story of true French heroism." The Prussians had not returned to make a second effort to capture the town as they threatened. The French preparations to receive them were perfect.

THE RISING IN BRITTANY.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—An American, who has just arrived here from Brest, says the patriotic uprising in Brittany is wonderful. Thousands of men, led by the Cures, crowd the railway trains on their way to Tours, to obtain arms and enlist. Throughout the country the greatest enthusiasm prevails.

ROUEN.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The following advices have been received here from Tours, dated at that place Wednesday evening:

The Rouen Journal has an editorial demanding that the town be placed in a state of siege, and the command intrusted to an experienced General. The writer intimates in that connection, that Gen. BOURBAKI, returning from Tours, will pass through Rouen.

The Gardes Mobile, at Rouen, have received orders to march at a moment's notice.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—A detachment of 3,000 Germans, under the command of Prince ALBERT, with artillery, have marched on Rouen, making exhaustive requisitions on the way.

THE NORTHERN FORTRESSES READY.

The French fortresses on the Belgian frontier, Mezieres, Maubenge, Roeroy, Douai, Valenciennes, Lille, &c., are fully prepared for a siege. The bombardment of the first-named is imminent. The commanders of Cambray and Landrevies have given orders for the inundation of the surrounding country as a means of defense.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The German garrison of Stenay, captured by the French from Montmédy, numbered only sixty men.

THE EAST.

Harrassing Prussian Communications—Germans at Epinal—Defeat of the National Guard and Occupation of the City.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—The invaders attribute the frequent railway accidents in their rear to the ill will of the inhabitants. They make this the pretence for treating the civil authorities with excessive severity, and for levying enormous requisitions. The inhabitants of Aube, and other eastern departments are resolved on resistance. The Franco-Tireurs are springing up everywhere, overrunning the country, and doing much harm to the Prussians.

GERMANS AT EPINAL.

NEUFCHATEAU, Oct. 13.—A force of Prussians, 7,000 strong, is at Epinal. Ten trains of German troops have passed the Meuse going to Paris.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The National Guard gallantly but vainly defended Epinal, and finally retreated toward Xertigny. The Franco-Tireurs, who were near at hand in force, gave them no support, and fled on the appearance of the enemy without firing a shot.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from Epinal dated yesterday afternoon, announces that the Prussians have entered that place. The citizens made a stout defense, but were not able to resist the artillery of the enemy. The town was considerably damaged by the cannonade.

THE SOUTH.

Lyons in a State of Defense—Disappearance of all Symptoms of Disorder.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—Reliable information has just been received here, by mail, from Lyons, showing that that city is amply prepared to resist any force the Prussians can send against it. The heights near the city have been strongly fortified. Entrenched camps have been constructed and heavy guns placed in position. The entire population is armed, and are drilling day and night. Large numbers of Mobiles and Franco-Tireurs have reached Lyons. There are troops enough there now for an army, and they may be easily organized to act on the offensive. All symptoms of disorder have disappeared from that city, and throughout the south of France the situation is now accepted uncomplainingly.

THE ARMY OF THE SOUTH.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The French Army of the South has as a nucleus three cavalry regiments, which were sent south from Paris before the investment of the city, the Algerian infantry, and the troops formerly serving in the western departments, making a total of 6,000 effective and disciplined men.

MARSEILLES.

TOURS, Oct. 14.—The following news dispatches have been given to the public, today, by the Ministry:

MARSEILLES, Oct. 13.—A decree of M. ESQUIROS suspends the Gazette du Midi, until further orders, as a measure of public safety. CANZIO, the son-in-law of Gen. GARIBALDI, has arrived here. M. ESQUIROS has received a petition demanding that the Bishop recently in Paris be replaced by one chosen from the clergy of Marseilles. M. ESQUIROS decrees that the congregation of Jesuits of Marseilles be dissolved. The fathers will be expelled within three days, but will be conducted to the frontier. Their properties will be sequestered provisionally.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Gen. Burnside and the War—Beauregard and Napoleon—Bismarck's Apprehensions from Republicanism in Germany.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Every one here is asking if it is reserved to Gen. BURNSIDE, by rushing in where diplomatists fear to tread, to end the war? It was a Yankee dentist who rescued the Ex-Empress from Republican vengeance and got her out of France. It is not impossible that another Yankee, by insinuating himself into the good graces of King WILLIAM, may get him and his Chancellor to listen to reason as expounded from the American point of view. Mr. RUSSELL, of the London Times, gives Gen. BURNSIDE a first-rate notice in a letter from Versailles today, relating to a "certain General who is acting as an intermediary of some sort between the belligerents."

BEAUREGARD'S OFFER OF SERVICE.

It has been a question as to whether BEAUREGARD really offered his services to the French. The facts which I have just heard are these: Previous to the fall of Sedan he communicated through Col. DUNCAN to the Emperor his desire to serve him in a military capacity. Only the other day Col. DUNCAN received from Wilhelmshoehe a reply, in which the Emperor, thanked the General for the offer, and regretted that it came too late for him to be able to avail himself of it, but that in the present strait of France a renewal of it would be eagerly accepted by the Provisional Government.

REPUBLICANISM IN GERMANY.

The correspondent of the NEW-YORK TIMES at Carlsruhe, writing on the 9th, says that in Prussia proper, and in the Northern States of Germany, the republican system finds but little favor at the present juncture. It is otherwise, however, in Southern Germany, and the fact is well known in Berlin, in spite of Count BISMARCK'S card to REUTER. The Police are actively engaged in watching every movement tending toward Republicanism. The arrests at Königsberg created a great sensation, and the approval, by Count BISMARCK, of the measures of Gen. VON FALKENSTEIN, is calculated to do a great deal of mischief. The people think his actions are opposed to his sentiments, as expressed in the Reuter dispatch. No doubt the Prussian Government dreads the influence of Republican institutions. If it were otherwise why gag the Press in Frankfort. Censure, until of late was entirely unknown there, but during the past fortnight the issue of a daily paper was suppressed four times. It is to be hoped that this fact may prove to have been due to the action of over-zealous officials, and that BISMARCK will take steps to prevent further mischief.

Preparing the Bill of Expenses for Prosecution—War Contributions of Napoleon I. to be Refunded by Frances.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Prussian Government have ordered an appraisement of the damage done to private property in Strasbourg, evidently with the intention of putting the amount in the bill of indemnity against France.

The Osté Gazette says Stettin has been ordered to furnish a minute of the war contributions levied by the French early in the century, probably for the same purpose. No mention has yet been made of the damages to be claimed for the execution of CONRAD VON HOHENSTAUFEN.

THE FRENCH CAPTURES.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The official accounts shows that the French war vessels have captured thirty-two prizes since the commencement of the war.

CITY WAR NEWS.

Appeal by Americans at Paris for Aid for the Wounded.

A meeting of the American International Sanitary Committee was held at Paris on the 10th of September, at which the following resolutions were adopted on motion of Rev. WILLIAM O. LAMSON:

Resolved, That circumstances having prevented the removal of the staff and material of this Committee from Paris, it now finds itself, in view of the threatened siege of the city, in the immediate prospect of the largest need of all its resources. To greatly extend and prolong its work, large expenditures will be required far exceeding the means remaining in its treasury. It must, therefore, at once take a decision, either to remain quite inadequate to the requirements of the wounded during the threatened siege, or to go forward boldly, with firm confidence in the ample support of the friends of humanity in the United States. The Committee prefer the latter course, feeling that their confidence will be fully justified, and that the contributions for which they cannot wait will be readily offered to pay the debts which must be incurred to carry on the great work of charity to the wounded and suffering. They feel, therefore, that prompt and vigorous efforts will be set on foot by their friends at home, that their obligations may be fully met and the American people show themselves second to none in generous response to this loud call upon the sympathies of the world.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to communicate the foregoing resolution to the proper parties at home, accompanied with an appeal for their publication in the NEW-YORK TIMES.

EDWARD A. CRANE, Secretary.

By order of the Committee.

Thomas W. Evans, Col. James McKaye, James W. Tucker, William O. Lamson, Albert Lee Wood, Edward A. Crane, of the American International Sanitary Committee.

The Sanitary Corps at Paris.

The American branch of the International Committee for Relief of the Wounded, has received information that the Committee at Geneva sent forward to Paris, before communication with that city had been cut off, 192 packages of special supplies for the wounded, and that it is at the present moment represented in Paris by its Commission agents and well-outfitted Ambulance Corps and helpers, who must continue until the siege is broken. Among these heroic representatives of the international agents is a complete staff of Austrian surgeons, who have located an ambulance establishment and hospital near the Tuileries. The Committee in this City has also been informed by Mr. G. MATNIER, President of the Committee at Geneva, that it is in urgent need of material for the wounded.

The French Charitable Fair.

The ladies of the Committee charged with the duty of organising the Charitable Fair to be held in this City for the relief of the sufferers by the dreadful war in France, announce to all who sympathize with them in this work that a preliminary meeting to complete their arrangements will be held on Tuesday next, Oct. 18, at 2 o'clock P. M., at the residence of Mme. LAMONTAGUE, No. 50 West Fifteenth-street. The following are the names of the ladies of the Committee:

Ames Van Wart, No. 107 Fifth-avenue. Secretary—Mme. G. Mourraille, No. 20 West Twelfth-street. Vice-Secretary—Mlle. Louise Bruguière, No. 57 West Nineteenth-street. Treasurer—M. A. Charvet, No. 148 Duane-street.

LADIES PRESIDING AT THE TABLES.

Mme. Victor Place, au Consulat General de France; Mme. Ogden Doremus, No. 70 Union-place; Mme. Ames Van Wart, No. 107 Fifth-avenue; Mme. A. Charvet, No. 146 West Forty-ninth-street; Mme. E. Jehl, No. 237 Fourth-avenue; Mme. Ch. Lassalle, No. 327 West Twenty-eighth-street; Mme. Bouillon, No. 126 West Seventeenth-street; Mme. Lizare, No. 15 East Forty third-street; Mme. Simon and Meieur, Mme. Vire, No. 42 East Fourteenth-street; Mlle. Leclère, No. 10 Gramercy Park; Mlle. Aubert, No. 6 Livingston-place; Mlle. A. G. de Blossières, No. 50 West Fifteenth-street.

LADIES APPOINTED ALSO TO RECEIVE DONATIONS.

Mme. Jumel Pery, Washington Heights; Mme. Lespinasse, Fort Washington; Mme. de Comeau, Staten Island; Mme. G. Reynaud, Fleetwood; Mme. d'Hervilly, Philadelphia, Penn; Mme. Ruiz, Philadelphia, Penn.

All the articles are to be sent to J. RIFFLARD & SONS, No 42 Vesey-street.

We published last Saturday the names of the American ladies that have joined this work of charity.

CAMBRIA AND DAUNTLESS.

The Dauntless Wins the Race—The Cambria Seven Minutes and Seventeen Seconds Behind.

The race between the Cambria and Dauntless was decided yesterday, the latter winning by over seven minutes. Both yachts arrived at the Hook shortly after 10 A. M., and the tug-boat took up a position and blew the preparatory whistle at 10 hours, 53 minutes, 30 seconds, and the second for a start five minutes later. The yachts passed the line as follows:

	H.	M.	S.
Dauntless, James Gordon Bennett, Jr.	11	7	30
Cambria, James Ashbury	11	9	0

At this time there was a fresh breeze from north-west by west, so the tug-boat, steamed out south-east by east, and the two contestants followed with wings spread to catch every breath of wind. Both yachts carried their jib-headed topsails. The commander of the Dauntless would not set her square-headed one, as the Cambria was minus that piece of canvass, having lost it o hthe previous day. The Sappho came out also, and followed the Cambria, which was following directly in the wake of the Dauntless. After passing the Scotland, the light-ship, the Dauntless slightly increased her lead of the Cambria, which was steadily leaving the Sappho in the background. There was very little change running down to the stake-boat, which they rounded as follows:

	H.	M.	S.
Dauntless	1	43	45
Cambria	1	47	50

Both yachts then hauled up on the starboard tack, and stood off south-west by west. The Sappho did not go round the tug-boat, but turned round with the Cambria as she met her coming back. On the beat back the Dauntless held a great deal better wind than the Cambria, and steadily head-reached her. Toward the afternoon the wind gradually died away, and there was hardly enough to keep the yachts moving. What little there was, was from the north, making the yachts head west by south half south. At 3:50 the breeze freshened, and both yachts made a long stretch, and the Cambria went about at 5:30, and the Dauntless six minutes later. Both then stood to the southward for half an hour, the Cambria tacking at 6:4, and the Dauntless two minutes later, and then they lay up for the tug-boat, laying off the point of the Hook, which they passed as follows:

	Total Time.			Corrected Time.
	H.	M.	S.	H.	M.	S.
Dauntless	6	29	35	7	22	05
Cambria	6	43	45	7	35	22

The Dauntless won the $280 cup by 7 minutes and 17 seconds. The Cambria was towed up to the South Ferry last night.

Mr. JAMES GARLAND, special agent of the Post-office Department for this City, has arrested out and brought to justice two dishonest Post-office servants. WILLIAM J. GETTY, Jr., a letter-carrier, was discovered to have secreted and embezzled a letter containing about $5. He was brought before Commissioner WILKINSON, examined, found guilty and was held for trial. JOSEPH P. BOYCE, a Clerk at the Erie letter-table in the Post-office, was found in possession of a letter secreted on his person containing about seven dollars. He waived examination, and was held for trial.

EUROPEAN MAIL NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAM-SHIPS CALABRIA AND HANSA

The Cunard steam-ship Calabria, which left Liverpool Oct. 4, and Queenstown Oct. 5, reached this port last night. Her advices are fresher by three days than those at hand by the Russia, on Wednesday night last. The Hansa, from Bremen, Oct. 5—the first steamer dispatched hither since the decision of the line to resume traffic—arrived at a late hour.

THE CRY FOR PEACE.

Count Bismarck's Account of the Negotiations.

The following circular—only partially telegraphed to the TIMES—has been addressed by Count BISMARCK to the North German Embassies and Legations:

FERRIÈRES, Sept. 27.

The report of M. JULES FAVRE, presented to his colleagues after our interview on the 21st of September, causes me to address to Your Excellency a communication which will give you a correct idea of what passed between us. Upon the whole, I cannot but admit that M. FAVRE has endeavored to convey an accurate account of the transaction. If he has not fully succeeded in so doing, his errors are sufficiently explained by the length of our interviews and the circumstances under which they were held. With regard to the drift of his entire argument, I ought, however, to observe that the primary topic of our conversations was not the conclusion of peace, but of an armistice, which was to precede it. As to our terms of peace, I expressly declared to M. FAVRE that I should state the frontier we should claim only after the principle of cession of territory had been publicly conceded by France. In connection with this the formation of a new Moselle district, with the arrondissements of Saarbrück, Chateau Salins, Saargemünd, Metz, and Thionville, was alluded to by me as an arrangement decided on our intentions, but I have not pronounced the right of making such further demands as may be calculated to indemnify us for the sacrifices which a continuance of the war will entail. M. FAVRE called Strasbourg the key of the house, leaving it doubtful which house he meant. I replied that Strasbourg was the key of our house, and we therefore objected to leave it in foreign hands. Our first conversation, in Château Haute Maison, near Montry, was confined to an abstract inquiry into the general characteristics of the past and present ages. M. FAVRE'S oddly pertinent remark on this occasion was that they would pay any sum, "tout l'argent que nous avons," but declined any cession of territory. Upon my declaring such cession to be indispensable, he said in that case it would be useless to open negotiations for peace; and he argued on the supposition that to cede territory would humiliate—nay, dishonor, France. I failed to convince him that terms such France had obtained from Italy and demanded from Austria many, without even the excuse of previous war—terms which France would have undoubtedly imposed upon us had we been defeated, and in which nearly every war had resulted down to the latest times—could have nothing dishonoring in themselves to a country vanquished after a gallant struggle, and that the honor of France was of no other quality or nature than the honor of all other countries. M. FAVRE likewise declined to see that, as a question of honor, the present restoration of Strasbourg would be on a par with the former restoration of Landau and Saar-louis, and that the honor of France was just a little bound up with the unlawful conquests of LOUIS XIV., as it had been with those of the First Republic or the First Empire. Our conversations took a more practical turn at Ferrières, where they referred to the question of an armistice. Such having been their exclusive theme at that place (Ferrières) when asked if I refused an armistice under any conditions, M. FAVRE doing me, on this and other occasions, the honor of making me express my own personal notions, —for instance, "il faudrait un armistice et je n'en veux à aucun prix," and such like,—compels me to rectify his allegations. I never, in conversations of this kind, speak of myself as according or denying anything, but only communicate the intentions and demands of the Government whose business I have to transact. In this conversation we both were of opinion that an armistice might be concluded to give the French nation an opportunity of electing a Representative Assembly, which alone would be in a position so far to strengthen the title to power possessed by the existing Government as to render it possible for us to conclude with them a peace valid in accordance with the rules of international law. I remarked that to an army in the midst of a victorious career an armistice is always injurious; that in the present instance, more particularly, it would give France time to reorganize her troops, and to make defensive preparations, and that, therefore, I could not accord an armistice without some military equivalent being conceded to us. I mentioned as such the surrender of the fortresses obstructing our communications with Germany; because, if by an armistice we were to be detained in France longer than was absolutely necessary, we must insist upon increased means of bringing up provisions. I referred to Strasbourg, Toul and some less important places. Concerning Strasbourg, I urged that the crowning of the glacis having been accomplished, the conquest of that place might be shortly anticipated, and that we, therefore, thought ourselves entitled to demand that that garrison should surrender as prisoners of war. The garrisons of the other places would be allowed free retreat. Paris was another difficulty. Having completely inclosed this city, we could permit it renewed intercourse with the rest of France only if the importations of fresh provisions thereby rendered possible did not enable the city to carry on its military position and retard the date at which we might hope to starve out the place. Having consulted the military authorities and taken His Majesty's commands, I therefore ultimately submitted the following alternative: "Either the fortified place of Paris is to be given into our hands by the surrender of a commanding portion of the works, in which case we are ready to allow Paris renewed intercourse with the country, and to permit the provisioning of the town; or, the fortified place of Paris not being given into our hands, we shall keep it invested during the armistice," which latter would other wise result in Paris being able to oppose us at the expiry, reinforced by fresh supplies and strengthened by new defenses. M. FAVRE peremptorily declined handing over any portion of the works of Paris, and also refused the surrender of the Strasbourg garrison as prisoners of war. He, however, promised to take the opinions of his colleagues at Paris respecting the other alternative under which the military status quo before Paris was to be maintained. Accordingly, the programme which M. FAVRE brought to Paris as the result of our conversations, and which was rejected there, contained nothing as to the future conditions of peace. It only included an armistice of from a fortnight to three weeks, to be granted on the following conditions, in order to enable the election of a National Assembly to be held:—Firstly, in and before Paris the maintenance of the military status quo; secondly, in and before Metz the continuance of hostilities within a circle hereafter to be more accurately defined; thirdly, the surrender of Strasbourg with its garrison, and the evacuation of Toul and Bitche, their garrisons being accorded free retreat. I believe our conviction that this was a very acceptable offer will be shared by all neutral Cabinets. If the French Government has not availed itself of this opportunity for having a National Assembly elected in all parts of France, those occupied by us not excepted, this indicates a resolve to prolong the difficulties which prevent the conclusion of a valid peace, and to ignore the voice of the French people. From all we see here the conviction is forced upon us, as it no doubt is likewise upon the rulers of Paris, that free and unbiassed general elections will yield a majority in favor of peace. I request your Excellency to communicate this circular to the Government to which you are accredited.

BELEAGUERED PARIS.

An American Opinion from the Interior City Scenes.

Paris (Sept. 21) Correspondence of the London Daily News.

An American, who took an active part in the Confederate defense of Richmond, has just been in to see me. He does not believe that the town will hold out long, and scoffs at the mode in which it is being defended. I reserve my opinion until I have seen it under fire. Certainly they "do protest too much." The papers contain lists of citizens who swear to die rather than surrender. The bourgeois, when he goes out to the ramparts, embraces his wife in public, and assumes a martial strut as though he were a very Curtius on the way to the pit. Jules is perpetually hugging Jacques, and talking about the altar of his country on which he means to mount. I really believe that the people walking on the Boulevards, and the assistants of the shops who deal out their wares in uniform, are under the impression that they are leaders already, perling life and limb for their country. Every girl who trips along thinks that she is a maid of Saragossa. It is almost impossible for an Englishman to realize the intense fervor of Paris. Every shop-window is full of caricatures, in form, strutting about with a martial swagger and listening to a distant cannonade. As yet the only real hardships we have suffered have been that our fish is a little stale, and that we are put on short allowance of milk. The National Guards on the ramparts I hear, grumble very much as having to spend the night in the open air. The only men I think I can answer for are the working men of the outer faubourgs and a portion of the Provincial Gardes Mobiles. They do mean to fight. Some of the battalions of the National Guards will fight, too, but I should be afraid to trust the greater portion of them, even behind earth-works." "Remember," says the Figaro to them today, "that you have wives and children; do not be too venturesome." This advice, I think, was hardly needed. As for the regular troops, they are not to be trusted, and I am not sorry to think that there are 20,000 sailors in the forts to man the guns.

THE IRON CROSS.

Prussian Bravery Rewarded on French Soil.

Versailles (Sept. 26,) Correspondent London Times.

There was a parade today at 10 o'clock, which will have an historical interest. It was held on a remarkable arena. On the upper step of the two from which arises the pedestal of the equestrian statue of LOUIS the Great, stood a powerfully built man in the prime of life, of fine bearing, with a fair full beard and a keen bright eye. Two stars are on his breast but it does not need them to mark the Prince of Prussia. He wears his flat cap, with peak and red band, undressed frock, and long boots, coming above the knee. On his left an officer of dragoons held a salver, encircled with laurels, on which was placed a heap of the Iron Crosses and their ribands, which will mark this war. The cross is of iron, with a silver edge; on one side is a crown, with the letters "F. W.," three oak leaves, and the date 1813; on the other side a crown, with the letter "W," and the date 1870. The riband is broad black with a white border. On the right of the Prince stood a group of Generals and officers of the Staff—Blumenthal, Tümpling, Kirchbach, Voigts-Rhetz, Gottberg, Eulenburg, Heykte, Seckendorff, Schlenitz, Bissing, &c. On the step below were ranged the Duke of Coburg, the Princes of Würtemberg and Mecklenburg, Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern, and the Duke of Augustenburg, with their staff. In the court-yard, drawn up at right angles to the statue of LOUIS the Great, a splendid regiment of Cismounted dragoons formed one side of the square, of which that facing the statue was constituted by two regiments in masses of grand divisions in close order, with the officers on the flanks; and on the left of the Prince, below, two lines of troops formed a kind of alley for the recipients of the crosses. A band of buglers and drummers, apart at one of the angles of the square, gave a martial welcome to the Prince when he entered and mounted the steps of the statue. There also stood were "France triumphant over Spain," "France triumphant over the German Empire," before him, and Peace and Abundance nearer at hand, and in monumental rows on either side were his strange, grim body guard—old DU GUESCLIN, grim Turenne, Bayard, Condé, and the smaller resistlessness of Jourdan, Masséna, Lannes, Mortier, and the rest of the illustrious sixteen who once adorned the Font de la Concorde. Higher still! Lift your eyes and see over those serried helmets: just across the angle of the statue of LOUIS the Great, and above the Prince's head, as you look from the left of the court, there is an inscription on the front of the pavillion. The world knows it. The words are, "A toutes les gloires de la France." And the happy recipients of the Iron Cross came up, one after the other, to the number of more than thirty, and the Prince said a word or two to all, shook hands with some, and when that ceremony was over laid the sword, raised it in the air, and with a loud voice called for "three cheers for the King." The wounded men in the gilded and pictured galleries far away must have heard the cheers which followed—three great shouts as of one tremendous threat—and then a General, VOIGTS-RHETZ or SARTORIUS, called for "three cheers for the Crown Prince," which were also given with immense effect, and the drums and bugles repeated a sort of triumphant blare and ruffle. Then the Crown Prince descended from the base of the indignant statue, and, mounting his horse, rode out to the Place d'Armes, where the Generals and Staff went on foot to see the march past of the troops, which excited the admiration of the crowd of French onlookers.

ITALIAN ROME.

The Pope's Present Occupation—King William's Reply to His Call for Aid.

Florence (Sept. 28) Correspondence of the London Daily News.

The Pope amuses himself by watching, himself unseen, through a little window of St. Peter's in the Vatican, the Italian soldiers, who visit the Great Temple with much devotion, and, passing before the statue of St. Peter, bow and kiss its toe and make the sign of the cross. On the evening of the 26th he said to Cardinal PATRIZI, "Does your Eminence know that these Italian soldiers seem much better Christians than those who were in my service a week ago? Good fellows! Good fellows!" A few days ago two Italian officers of artillery entered the Vatican to visit the museum, and on entering ascended by mistake the grand staircase to the right instead of the one in front. The gendarmes and halbardiers made way for them with every sign of respect. In the same respectful manner they were saluted by prelates and abbés. Passing from hall to hall, they arrived at a spot where were dignitaries of the highest rank, cardinals, bishops, &c., in great numbers, one of whom asked what they desired. "To visit the museum," answered the officers. "You have mistaken your way," said Cardinal PACCA; "these are the apartments of His Holiness, and this is his ante-chamber." Pius IX., at the suspected clank of sabres, putting his head at the crack of the door, saw the officers bowing themselves out backward with all manner of reverences before the clerical dignitaries. Upon being told the cause of their appearance, he exclaimed, opening the door, "Fine fellows! brave youths!" Pius IX., who was himself an officer of hussars in his youth, is decidedly pleased by the Italian soldiers. These are trifles which I tell you, but they may have more influence than any one imagines upon the modus vivendi.

Scarcely had the Pope received notice of the Italian expedition against Rome when he asked aid from the King of Prussia, who answered him under date of Sept. 8, as follows:

HEAD-QUARTERS OF THE GERMAN ARMIES, NEAR RHEIMS, Sept. 8, 1870.

MOST HOLY FATHER: Monsignor the Bishop of Paderborn has presented to me the letter in which your Holiness informs me that you have resolved to leave His Majesty the King of Italy may perhaps send an army into the Pontifical States, and into Rome itself.

Your Holiness requests me to hinder the King of Italy in the execution of the project, and asks also for an armed intervention of my troops in case your Holiness should have need of protection. I regret that the policy always adopted by myself and my Government prevents me absolutely from intervention in any such question. I am, beside, on the best terms with my brother the King of Italy, and I could not imperil the relations which exist between Germany and Italy for a political interest which does not in any way, as your Holiness seems to think touch upon the interests of Prussia. I have no doubt, beside, that his Majesty the King of Italy and his Government, if they should be forced to enter the States of your Holiness in order to avert the excesses of the revolutionary party in Europe, would give your Holiness every guarantee which can assure the free exercise of that spiritual authority which your Holiness ought to exert in the interest of the Church of which you are the acknowledged head. With the most earnest desire that peace and order may be shortly re-established in all parts of Europe, I beg your Holiness to believe me your sincere friend.

OUR STEEL MANUFACTORIES.

The Cambria Iron-Works—Coke and Its Production—American Steel-Rails—Progress—An Immense Establishment—A Fine Economic Exhibit.

From Our special Correspondent.

PITTSBURG, Monday, Sept. 19, 1870.

After spending a night at the excellent Fountain House, at Alsoone, one part of the day in the Pennsylvania Railway's workshops, we proceeded to Johnstown. This village is located on the Conemaugh River, about seventy-eight miles from Pittsburg, and stands relatively to the Central Road, about seventy-eight miles from Philadelphia, and 326 miles from New-York. Johnstown is a most flourishing place, and the Cambria Iron-Works are the chief cause of its prosperity. Its population is now about 10,000, and it has increased very rapidly since the Cambria Iron-Works were established. Before that time it was a small village, containing only a few hundred inhabitants. Now it has a large number of handsome residences, and many of the workmen have comfortable homes. The Cambria Iron-Works are the largest in the United States, and are probably the largest in the world. They cover a large area of ground, and are divided into several departments, each of which is a complete establishment in itself. The Cambria Iron-Works proper are devoted to the manufacture of rails, axles, and other forms of iron. The Cambria Steel-Works are devoted to the manufacture of steel-rails, and the Gautier Steel-Works are devoted to the manufacture of steel springs, axles, and other forms of steel. The Cambria Iron-Works proper are divided into the Upper Works and the Lower Works. THE COAL BASIN.

The ores used at Johnstown are the red brown hematites, the red paint ore, the variety known as fossil ore, which is composed of the Clinton group, and the Allenheny limonite. The ores are mined in the immediate vicinity of the works, and are brought to the furnaces by railroad. The coal is bituminous, and comes from the Broad Top region, which is about forty miles distant. The coke is made at the works, and is of the best quality. The limestone is obtained from the Bedford region, which is about seventy miles distant. The coal and coke are brought to the works by railroad, and the limestone by canal. The Cambria Iron-Works are supplied with water from the Conemaugh River, which flows through the town. The water is pumped into a reservoir on the hill-side near the works, which is elevated about 100 feet above the level of the river. The other works obtain their water from the Stony Creek, which flows through the town. SINGULAR LITIGATION.

A Charge of Arson Revived in a Civil Suit—The Smouldering Embers of a Burned Bakery Break Out Again—The Complaint Dismissed.

A somewhat novel and interesting case, involving charges of fraud on the part of the defendant, and incidentally of larceny, was on trial before Judge VAN BRUNT, in the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday. In her complaint the plaintiff, Mrs. MARGARET LARKIN, administratrix of OWEN LARKIN, charges against the defendant, JOHN T. WILSON, that in the month of May, 1863, he, (WILSON,) executed to her husband a pretended deed of property in Brooklyn, receiving in consideration therefor $1,800, to recover back which she now brings this action; that such pretended deed was not intended by the defendant to convey anything whatever, but that it was executed or procured to be executed and delivered to deceased by defendant, for the sole purpose of fraudulently obtaining the money sought to be recovered in this action. The answer of the defendant denies all the allegations of the complaint, It will be remembered, moreover, that in January, 1868, the crasher bakery of the defendant, then in Fulton-street, was destroyed by fire. Charges were then made against defendant and others of having procured the premises to be burned. An examination was had before Justice DOWLING and the case dismissed, but the plaintiff in this case, and her daughter, again revive the charge against the defendant and others.

Among the testimony offered on behalf of the plaintiff was that of Mrs. LARKIN herself, who testified that on the day when the transfer of the money and deed was made, she had gone to the market, and while absent was followed by her son, who told her that her money was gone; she hurried home, and on arriving there found her husband and the defendant in the house, a small desk in which she kept a note for $1,000, made by defendant, $600 in gold and $200 in currency; that at the same time her husband and the defendant exhibited to her a deed for some property in Brooklyn for which they stated the money had been paid; that her husband put the deed in his pocket and was preparing to go to Brooklyn with his wife to look at the property; that soon thereafter the defendant came into his bake-house adjoining, he sent for her husband to go in also; that her husband then left his house and went to the defendant's bakery from whence he did not return until an explosion took place in the bake-house in the afternoon; that when the explosion took place, she (the witness) was attached to the bake-house and there found her husband and son who had been severely injured, being covered with flour; that after her husband had recovered sufficiently to speak she asked him what he had done with the deed, to which he replied, that it was in his pantaloons pocket which had been pulled off when on fire, after the explosion; that she found the deed, together with some money, but at the same moment the defendant came up and spoke to her about getting a carriage for the removal of her husband and son, and that she let the papers drop on the floor, and went to her house; that her husband and son died a few days after, and she never again saw the deed.

The daughter of plaintiff testifies that while her husband was at the New-York Hospital she heard the defendant tell her father that he had found the deed on the floor; that her mother asked defendant to give the money; inasmuch as he had got the deed, and she did not want the property; that defendant refused, saying that he would see that her husband and son were properly buried; that the money was now in property and she had better leave it there. Both mother and daughter testified to seeing several parties coming and going after the fire to the building at the time when the fire occurred in the previous January. The daughter further testified that WILSON, the defendant, had attempted before the fire to bribe her mother and another woman, with a promise of $700 each, to set the bakery on fire, which was indignantly refused; and that the police had attempted to throw defendant down stairs because of the proposition.

GEORGE W. HOXIE, counsel for plaintiff, testified that he served the summons and complaint on the defendant personally; that on that occasion the defendant invited the witness to sit down, and then there had a conversation. This was a trumped-up matter; that there had been no negotiation between the deceased and defendant, and that he (defendant) never owned any property in Brooklyn.

Plaintiff here rested his case, and on this testimony counsel for the defendant moved for a non-suit, on the ground that the evidence in only showed that if any such transaction ever took place between the defendant and deceased, the fact appears that money was paid and a deed delivered, and that if the deed subsequently came into the possession of the defendant, it was by consent of the deceased, and if lost, he (defendant) was not responsible except for conversion.

The Court granted the motion and dismissed the complaint, on the ground that the plaintiff had failed to produce testimony sustaining the allegation of fraud. GEORGE W. HOXIE appeared for plaintiff; JOHN SEDGWICK for defendant.

SUPREME COURT—SPECIAL TERM.—OCT. 14.

Before Judge Barnard.

A QUESTION OF LAW AS TO MONEY PAID FOR THE BED OF CROTON WATER.

Solomon Simm vs. The Mayor, &c., of New-York.—About the 1st of May, 1867, the plaintiff, who was a distiller in First-avenue, made an arrangement with the Croton Aqueduct Board for the use of as much water as he might need for the purpose of carrying on his business. An estimate was made by the engineer of the cost of the water for the ensuing six months, and the amount fixed at $1,200, which was paid by the plaintiff. The charge was $10 per each working day was $10 40. On the 20th of August following the premises were totally destroyed by fire, of which fact due notice was given at the office of the Croton Board. Inasmuch as the fire occurred without any fault on his part, the plaintiff demanded that the sum of about $650 be refunded to him, that being the amount, as near as it could be estimated, of the money due for the unexpired term. The City refused to refund the money, and hence this suit was brought to recover it. As a matter of law Mr. Dean, assistant to the Corporation Counsel, contended that the advance payment of $1,200 was in no sense a deposit, such as the companies sometimes demand estimate payments. He also insisted that the plaintiff had not shown that there was any money in the Treasury from which this sum could be refunded.

The Court decided both points against the defendant, and rendered judgment for the plaintiff for the full amount claimed with interest, and five per cent allowance.

For the plaintiff, Messrs. G. R. & T. D. Pelton; for the defendants, Mr. Dean, Assistant Counsel to the Corporation.

THE NEW-YORK SILVER MINING COMPANY OF NEVADA—A MIXED CASE.

Hugh Neill and John Cook vs. The New-York Silver Mining Company, of Nevada, John Sproule, President of the Company, et al.—This action was brought in a Court of equity, for the purpose of obtaining a decree for an injunction and other relief. Which was asked under the following state of facts: About Oct. 20, 1865, the Company above named issued one hundred bonds, with coupons attached, for $500 each, the statement being that they were first mortgage bonds, secured by a lien on all property, both real and personal, belonging to said Company. On the 1st of May, 1867, the Company issued a second series of bonds, three hundred in all, at $500 each, which purported on their face to be first mortgage, duly secured by a lien on all the real and personal property of the Company. It seems that the first mortgage on the property was not recorded when it should have been, and hence some of the purchasers, in good faith of the second series of bonds which amount in the aggregate to $150,000, insist that they have been defrauded. The case was considerably mixed up, inasmuch as it was a triangular struggle. The case was argued at length by Mr. R. Lyall for the plaintiffs, by Messrs. Niles & Bagley for the Company, and by Millard for the bondholders, who were made defendants. The Court dismissed the complaint as against Mr. Millard's clients, but reserved their disbursements only of the plaintiffs. As to the other defendants, judgment was awarded for the plaintiffs.

KINGS COUNTY SUPREME COURT—CIRCUIT.

Before Judge Pratt.

William H. Jamieson vs. The Brooklyn Skating Rink.—In this case the plaintiff alleged that when the subscription books of the defendant were opened he subscribed for 150 shares of the stock, worth at the time $10,000, and that on the 7th of December, 1865, he paid that amount for them. The defendant, however, failed to deliver more than fifty of the said shares, and although repeated demands have been made since, they have not up to till the present time been delivered. Suit is therefore brought to recover $5,000. The defendants admitted the receipt of the money involved in this action was memorialized for in the name of the plaintiff, but by and on behalf of the firm of Harvey Johnson & Co., which firm had made a contract with the defendants for the building and fitting up of the Rink of the said premises. It was expressly agreed that the fifty shares should be for the benefit of that firm; and further alleged that the stock has been duly issued to the firm of Harvey Johnson & Co. The case is still on. John T. Washburn for plaintiff, Edgar M. Cullen and George G. Reynolds for defendant.

FRIDAY, Oct. 14—P. M.

The squeeze in Gold for cash delivery was relieved at an early hour in the forenoon, by the readiness of holders to lend it at ¼ of 1 ₱ cent. for the day, and subsequently by their offers to lend it flat—that is, without bonus or interest. The secret of the sudden change was not clearly explained up to the close of business, but the rumor was current that the parties to the combination to make higher rates, besides being suspicious of the probable action of the Treasury in case the attempt should be made, fell out among themselves, but whether on mutual recriminations of bad faith or not, we cannot undertake to report. The price of Gold in the open market fell from 114 ₱ cent. to 113⅜ ₱ cent. after the settlements of the day were so easily made. The Foreign Exchanges failed to improve on the let up in Gold, and Bills on London were quoted, on actual transactions, at 108¾@108⅞, 60 days, and 109 ₱ cent., short sight, for standard bankers. The market is influenced by the improved export movement of Domestic Produce, which creates about $4,500,000 of Exchange this week.

The slight flurry in Money on call loan, noticed yesterday, passed over this morning with the break in the Gold combination, and although 7 ₱ cent. was again paid by some of the Brokers, early in the day, the prevailing rate was 6 ₱ cent. after 12 o'clock noon, and the market left off easy.

The Stock Exchange improved on the Railway list as soon as it was known that the Gold corner was out of the question, and the Money market restored to quiet, and there was a pretty fair business done at the Boards, and in the Long Room of the Exchange, at slightly better prices than Thursday's closing. In the Miscellaneous Shares, Western Telegraph advanced to 40@39½ ₱ cent., and Pacific Mail was steadier. In the Public Funds the business of the day was done at somewhat lower figures, 5-20s of 1867, 110⅜ ₱ cent. Nothing new occurred in the Southern State Bonds.

After the late Boards the following quotations were made as compared with Thursday night. The Market closing strong and active:

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

M. GAMBETTA has issued a proclamation to the inhabitants of Tours, conveying the information that on the 12th inst. the people of Paris, impatient of Prussian delay in attacking them, marched forward upon the enemy, driving them back from the positions on the entire circumference of Paris, which they had been occupying since three weeks. The proclamation details the positions from which the Germans have been obliged to retire, and invites the provinces to do their duty as Paris has done hers. A London dispatch says the terrible fire of the Mont Valérien fortifications has swept the country round about. For a circuit of six kilometres the Prussian works have been destroyed, all the batteries attempted to be constructed by them having been swept away. The Chateau of Meudon has been destroyed, and the Prussians driven from Clamart, Meudon and Montretout. Villejuif and Cachan have both been retaken by the French. The telegrams confirm the facts set forth in M. GAMBETTA'S proclamation. The dispatches from Versailles state that court-martial in the Prussian lines makes short work with deserters. The French General commanding at Orleans in the recent engagement, makes an official report of the battle, in which he says that his corps was on the way to Paris when he encountered the Germans. The fighting was obstinate, but the superior Prussian artillery broke his lines. The crossing of the Loire was effected in good order. A Tours dispatch, of yesterday, says the Prussians seem to have retired from their advanced position to the south of Orleans. The successful sorties of the Parisians cause intense excitement at Tours. Gen. BOURBAKY has received an ovation from the troops and citizens of the town. All the lines communicating from Tours with the western section of the country, are still open. Reports from the Sub-Prefect of Pont L'Evêque, to the 12th inst., confirm the announced successes of the sorties by Marshal BAZAINE. He had burned five villages which sheltered the Prussians, dislodged them from several positions, and cut to pieces four regiments of cavalry. At the same time Marshal CANROBERT made a successful sortie on the left bank of the Moselle. The Prussians report a mutiny imminent among the soldiers in Metz. The French fortresses in the north of France are prepared for siege. Each canton of France is required to furnish a battalion of troops for the defense of the country, and there are 2,000 cantons.

GENERAL EUROPEAN NEWS.

Our Madrid correspondent telegraphs that the political situation is daily becoming worse. The desire for the termination of the personal government of Gen. PRIM increases as the time approaches for the reopening of the Cortes. He also writes that affairs in Portugal show that the King has entirely lost the moral ascendency through the influence of Spanish diplomacy....Telegram and mail news received in London are bringing reports of the effects of the recent storm on the coast and in the interior. The mill regions of Lancashire have experienced disastrous freshets, and the shipping on the Mersey has been badly damaged. Relief has already been voted by the City of Liverpool for the sufferers....The United States steamer Franklin is at Portsmouth, England.... The annual budget in the Dutch Chamber met with opposition, that body demanding explanations of the Luxemburg debt and the Venezuela question....The Bank of England statement is less favorable this week.

GENERAL

Advices from South America, by way of Lisbon, say that a force of the Argentine Republic had defeated the insurgents in two engagements. The Montevideans and the rebels also had an indecisive struggle.

The family of the late Gen. LEE have signified their willingness that his remains shall be interred in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va., in the section belonging to the State of Virginia. This was announced to the Legislature yesterday morning, and that body adjourned to Tuesday next. Gen. LEE'S body is expected to reach Richmond on Monday, The Faculty of Washington College, Lexington, yesterday passed resolutions in which it is suggested to associate the name of LEE with that of WASHINGTON in the title of the institution, and to observe his birthday in the same manner as that of the "Father of his Country."

DAVID C. BURDICK was sentenced yesterday, at Little Valley, N. Y., to be hanged on the 25th of November, for the murder of HENRY H. BAKER, colored, in Olean about a year ago.

The wound of JOHN C. NOLEN, who was shot on Thursday in the Chestnut-street Courtroom, Philadelphia, where the judges of election were in session, having been pronounced fatal by the attending surgeons, the ante-mortem statement of NOLEN was taken, in which he says he was shot by ALEXANDER CRAWFORD at the instigation of WILLIAM B. MANN, late District-Attorney. MANN says he simply told CRAWFORD to defend himself.

The Republican Convention of the Twenty-sixth Congressional District, at Oswego, yesterday, nominated Hon. THOS. C. PLATT, on the 1,023d ballot.

The Grand Lodge of Free Masons of California has repealed the decree forbidding subordinate lodges to bury the remains of Masons who commit suicide.

The steam-ship Continental, from Mazatlan, Mexico, for San Francisco, foundered at sea thirty miles off Cape St. Lucas on the 30th ult., and seven passengers and one of the crew were drowned. The steamer encountered a severe gale on the 28th, and on the 29th her fires were put out by the water from a leak. Those lost refused to leave the ship, while all who took to the boats were saved. Her treasure, amounting to $140,000, and the mails are lost.

President GRANT is to visit Georgia next week, having been invited through a joint resolution of the General Assembly. He and those who may accompany him, will leave Washington on Tuesday, in a special train, and be met at the State line by a Joint Committee of the Assembly. In Atlanta the Presidential party will be the guests of the City Council.

The New-York and Wilmington steam-ship Washington, which left Wilmington, N. C., yesterday morning, for this port, with 700 barrels of turpentine and 300 bales of cotton, took fire about nine miles below that city, and was run ashore on Big Island, where she was burned to the water's edge. A Wilmington fire company was sent down to endeavor to save part of the cargo.

A remarkably fine display of the northern lights was witnessed in different parts of New-England, last evening, and in the West, this State, City and vicinity.

Mr. SAMUEL HEASLIP, an apparently prosperous, and certainly respected, merchant of Saratoga Springs, committed suicide on Thursday at Saratoga. He first took laudanum, and then shot himself immediately after.

Yesterday the Republicans of the Ninth Massachusetts Congressional District nominated Hon. W. B. WASHBURN, of Greenfield, and the Democrats of the Tenth District nominated REUBEN NOBLE, of Westfield.

Mr. Richard O'Gorman's Defense of the "Ring."

We have very little space to spare just now, but yesterday we gave up four columns and a half to the second defense of Gov. HOFFMAN and Mr. TWEED. We were moved to do this partly from the desire to let every side have a fair hearing, and in consideration of the fact that Mr. TWEED'S first defense, in the columns of the World, was so very injurious to the unhappy object of it. Much as we may dislike the gang of which TWEED is at the head, common humanity compels us to sympathise with them under the disastrous advocacy of their friends. In the next place, Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN is a shrewd advocate, and therefore could be relied upon to put forward everything that could be said in favor of his clients, in the strongest possible light. After giving him a full hearing, we need not abandon any more space to the "Ring" advocates. As the Corporation Attorney, he may be said to hold a perpetual brief for TWEED, SWEENY, and HALL—and although it is quite out of the question to listen to him as to an impartial person, at least we may presume that he speaks with a full knowledge of his subject.

Now, so very bad is the case which Mr. O'GORMAN had to defend, that we are sorry to say he was afraid even to deal as an honest man with it. He only touched it, so to speak, with a pair of tongs. He was driven to all the tricks which a lawyer in difficulties is compelled to use,—to evasions of important charges, to general allegations, to dwelling upon accusations which we, at least, have never made,—such as the one about the purchase by Mr. TWEED of "various ponds for twenty-five thousand dollars," &c. Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN knows very well that we have not published any charge relating to that subject, but, like an advocate who knows that his client is guilty, he tries to hoodwink the judge and put the jury upon a false scent.

In favor of Mr. TWEED, this professional advocate has absolutely nothing to say. He wastes his breath in talking about Mr. TWEED'S "gorgeous house," and says that it is none of our business. Who said it was? Is not Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN aware that it was the Ring organ, the World, which first told us all about TWEED'S "palatial stables" and "gorgeous harness," and exposed him to public reprobation for possessing them? Has he any objection to our quoting from TWEED'S own paper? He only objects to the publication of that which has been a good deal in the Times lately about Mr. TWEED. So there has, and we are very sorry for it. The subject cannot possibly be more disagreeable to Mr. O'GORMAN than it is to us. We have no desire to drag our readers into disreputable company at any time—but the real trouble is that TWEED is everywhere and everybody in New-York. We find him in almost every office, and at the top, bottom, or middle of every job. He will not allow us to ignore him. He is perpetually obtruding himself upon us. Only on Tuesday last he thrust himself prominently before the public in another bare-faced Erie swindle. While his actions are being sharply criticised, and at a serious stage of the Democratic canvass, he had the impudence to concert a plan with JAMES FISK, JR., for thrusting his hands deeper than ever into the pockets of the Erie shareholders. We say that this is a man who deserves no quarter. He shamelessly insults the whole community, and simply defies the public and the Press,—saying to them: "Go on grumbling as you may, I will still make or break laws to suit my own convenience, and you will not take the trouble to put a stop to me as a nuisance. You are too apathetic. We tricksters are the only active men in this community." Even Mr. O'GORMAN, who holds his brief, sneers at the public by telling them that it is no business of theirs how rich TWEED is—and yet the World has told us on authority that TWEED has made all his money by "involuntary contributions" from the public!

Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN breaks down just as miserably in his defense of HOFFMAN. He says that the only charge brought against the Governor is that he signed the Erie bill. Mr. O'GORMAN, a prominent lawyer, dares to get up at a crowded meeting and say this, in the teeth of the accusations brought against HOFFMAN by the Bar, of dishonestly tampering with the Judiciary. Silence on such a subject as this is absolutely fatal to the advocate's clients. It is like Mr. O'GORMAN'S blundering defense of the Parks Commission. He mentions the name of one member only, and says, "is not this an honest man?" He keeps carefully out of sight the fact that another of the three members of the Executive Committee is "TOM FIELDS." Now, why on earth did Mr. O'GORMAN leave FIELDS out? Was it because he thought the public might not like to hear that the Central Park is now practically in the hands of FIELDS and SWEENY?

Throughout this strange address, the counsel for the Ring left every material accusation against the Ring unanswered. It is as if he had been engaged in defending a man from a charge of burglary, and based his defense upon the fact that the prisoner in his early days attended Sunday-school regularly—and upon that ground demanded an acquittal. Gov. HOFFMAN is solemnly charged with committing a great outrage upon the public by willfully putting corrupt Judges in positions of vast importance—and Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN, a lawyer himself, and put up to plead for HOFFMAN, dare not utter a single word in reply to this indictment. It is much better for the Ring to clap a bridle on the tongues of their advocates altogether than to allow them to come forward with these ruinous arguments.

As for the speech made by the Mayor, there is but one thing in it which will strike the public attention. He alluded in an affectionate sort of way to "our Democratic paper, the World." Was Mr. HALL thinking of the time when the World denounced him by name as "a shameless corruptionist of the Ring?" A very pretty label "our paper" contrived to paste upon his back! He appears to be as proud of it as a peacock is of his tail, but most people would rather go about the streets with a less conspicuous sign about them than that of "shameless corruptionist of the Ring."

Adventures in the Air.

Not long ago there was a great rage for fictitious stories of adventure in the air. The English magazines were rich in such tales, and the illustrated publications of London and Paris were embellished with all manner of startling pictures of scenes far above the earth. Sometimes it was a maniac trying to hurl somebody else out of the car, sometimes an artless virgin carried off by her betrayer. In one case a gentleman, evidently weary of the society of his companion, had clambered, while the latter was asleep, up to the bag of the balloon, and, having made himself secure there by cords, was coolly cutting loose the car which contained his sleeping friend, so that he should be precipitated to the ground, a mile below. In another sketch a person fond of practical joking had surreptitiously suspended his friend from the car, by a rope made fast under his arms, and thus at the distance of a hundred feet or so, the dismayed victim was dangling in the air. The incident of balloons being fired at with rifles from the earth, has been repeatedly introduced in fiction, and so has that of aeronauts assailing people from balloons in the same way. We believe that some imaginative writer has even painted an aerial combat between rival balloons, the occupants of each using fire-arms, and meeting in the sequel a common destruction.

So much for romance. But the realities of ballooning adventure, or the projects which have been devised by aeronauts, have been even more strange and incredible. Among the latter must be reckoned Prof. LOWE'S famous design. He proposed to the public, if not to himself, to cross the Atlantic in a gigantic balloon, some three hundred feet high from the crown of the ball to the car. This was to carry cooking apparatus, provisions for three months, scientific implements, guns, ammunition, furs and blankets at discretion, and a dozen passengers. The immense balloon was, in truth, partly inflated on the ground in Sixth-avenue, near to the Forty-second-street Reservoir. But for some unexplained reason it never went up. Its tawny globe appeared above the surrounding fence, swelled to the height of neighboring houses. It swayed about majestically for a day or two, and then disappeared. Mixed [illegible] delight in thwarting the plans of the Jockey Club and the pleasure of its patrons. A wet race-day will be considerwished in between two days of tantalizing brightness and beauty in a way that suggests nothing else, and it not unfrequently happens that the entire week is fine except the days appointed for the races.

In this untoward fortune we find one reason of the scanty attendance, which seems yearly to grow scantier, at the Fordham course. Yet this is not the only reason. Last Saturday was as lovely a day as the most exacting turfite or the most timorous beauty could desire; yet the balconies of the Club-house were far from crowded, and the benches of the grand stand bore such a sprinkling of spectators as only served to emphasize their forlorn emptiness and desolation. The quarter-stretch and the pool-market, to be sure, had their usual throngs of eager and clamorous betting men. But these are sure to be present, rain or shine, and constitute precisely the class which it is least desirable to attract to a race-course of the aims and pretensions of Jerome Park. The design of that Park, as we understand it, was to cultivate among the public at large at once a taste for the noblest of pastimes and also a proper appreciation of the noblest of animals. Up to the present, this praiseworthy intention has but indifferently succeeded. And the failure is not due, as we have already intimated, to any shortcoming in the management of the Park, or to any mistake in its original conception. It is charmingly situated in a lovely country, and just far enough from City limits to give room for a pleasant drive, while by rail it is easily and speedily accessible. From the beginning the races have been conducted with scrupulous fairness, exhibiting the best stock in the country; and if in one regard the public has been disappointed oftener than seems judicious, the fault is not fairly chargeable to the members of the Jockey Club. We refer, of course, to the too frequent practice of withdrawing horses advertised to run. To those who go to the Park with the anticipation of seeing a large field of famous names, it is somewhat vexatious to be put off with a match between two, perhaps, second-rate racers, or the still more exasperating formula of a walk over. Yet, owners of fine stock have an undoubted right to refuse to risk property so expensive and so precarious as racing stock in a hopeless contest or over an unfit track. And even in this respect, as was shown more than once during the present meeting, there seems to be a growing disposition among owners rather to take such risks than to disappoint. Thursday's track, we have said, was cruelly heavy, yet four good races were run over it in very fair time, two of them, the Selling Sweepstakes and the Three-Year-Old contest, being notably sharp and exciting. Today the attractions are very great, and no doubt a full attendance will be at the Park to see the sport.

Is New-York to be Placed Under Mob Law?

The World has answered this question in the affirmative. It has done its best to incite the worst kind of Democrats to commit a riot on election-day. This danger must be guarded against, and in time to prevent any misunderstanding on the part of the ruffians who hope to have this City at their disposal on the 8th of next month.

Down to the present time, adequate preparations have not been made to meet the outbreak of violence which is clearly foreshadowed by the articles in the World. United States Marshal SHARPE will do all that lies within his power—but that "all" is not enough. He can only appoint Deputy Marshals in each district, and a very inadequate force to protect them. Much more than this is needed. The Marshal must have it within his power to call United States troops to his assistance, in order that the preparations for violence made by the Democrats may be frustrated. The military authorities must see that there are troops near enough to the City to be called into requisition at a moment's notice. The very knowledge that these troops are at hand will be sufficient, without their active interference. The roughs employed by the "Ring" are principally cowards, and will not venture on getting up a riot in the teeth of an overwhelming force.

We earnestly trust that this warning may be duly heeded at Washington, backed up as it is by the urgent advice of the Herald, which is not generally very harsh toward TWEED & Co. "From present appearances," said that journal yesterday, "we have reason to fear that from the incitements and instructions of unscrupulous partisan journals against these new election laws of Congress, the City of New-York, on our November election day, will be a scene of election riots and confusion disgraceful to the City, the State, the United States, and to our democratic institutions." It is for the authorities to take effectual precautions against this danger, and to let it be known in good time that they are taken. The TWEED and SWEENY faction feel that they are in a critical position, and they will not die without a struggle. But we can beat them on the 8th, if we have a fair election—and that ought to be secured to us beyond all risk of accident.

The withdrawal of Mr. COX from the Interior Department will be regretted by those who know how much industry and integrity he has brought to the performance of arduous duties. The reasons for his action are represented as personal, and as in no manner affecting his kindly relations with the President.

Every Republican who does not desire that his party shall be again sold out to the Tammany Ring, should attend the special meeting of the General Committee that has been called for this evening. An attempt is to be made by the Republican servants of the Ring to rescind the action of the Committee at its last meeting, so as to facilitate the packing of the County Convention with Tammany Democrats. Many members of the Committee who joined in the call for this special meeting were not aware of its real object. They should attend, to-night, to aid in preventing the consummation of the iniquity [illegible] they have unconsciously helped to make possible.

We trust that the action of the Committee to-night will exhibit the paid agents of the Ring in their proper light, and reduce them to their proper level.

So far, the elections for the Forty-second Congress exhibit a net Democratic gain of eight—the Republicans having elected fifty-six members, and the Democrats twenty-six. In regard to the elections yet to be held, our Washington correspondent sends as the result of careful estimates, figures showing that the next House may be expected to count a Republican total of 138, against a Democratic total of 85. Should this calculation be verified, the Republicans will lose the two-thirds majority they have so long held, but without losing the control over legislation which is still essential to the country's prosperity. The Democratic boasts in reference to a possible Democratic majority are the inventions of lunatics.

Nothing more conclusively proves the dishonesty of the authors of the State Election law than the outcry they have raised against Federal legislation upon the same subject. And nothing better proves the necessity for Federal legislation than the intention of Tammany—now virtually confessed by the World—to do all that can be done to render a peaceful and honest election impossible. The State Election law looked well on paper at the time of its enactment, but, obviously, the Tammany Democrats never contemplated its faithful enforcement. It is one of their numberless frauds, and their fury in connection with it is the result of a discovery that the benefit they pretended to confer, but did not, has been secured by the intervention of Congress. If for the first time in years our citizens enjoy a fair election in November, it will be because Federal authority has interfered its arm to shield them from the frauds and violence which have been the chief sources of Tammany's strength.

The telegraph tells of successful sorties by BAZAINE, and of minor French advantages in the vicinity of Paris. These incidents, however, possess no real significance. The surrender of Metz is but a question of time; and whether Paris withstand German tactics for a longer or shorter period, the final result seems equally certain. Nor is the general aspect materially affected by the promise of large accessions to the French Armies. What France most needs is capable military leadership, and this cannot be called forth by a proclamation, nor improvised out of vague enthusiasm. The best remaining General is shut up in Metz, and there is absolutely no sign anywhere of a capacity for organising available forces. We hear now and then of attacks by French peasants upon German scouting parties, but these are exceptional. Passive submission to outrage is the rule. A dozen Uhlans take possession of a village and levy contributions without provoking a semblance of resistance. Of guerrilla warfare, or of dashing cavalry raids, either of which might easily play havoc with the German lines of communication—there is not so much as a beginning. This is one of the most ominous facts developed in the contest.

Mr. O'GORMAN defends, with much flashy rhetoric, the administration of the public moneys of the City by the Tammany Ring. He does not profess "perfect accuracy," he is candid enough to say, but he does profess to know sufficient to justify him in denouncing as "totally false, scandalous and idle" charges affecting the integrity of the Ring. Mr. O'GORMAN may be satisfied upon this point, but the public are not. They witness too much stealing to put confidence even in his assurances that all is right. Why not dispel doubt by producing complete balance-sheets to date? If Mr. O'GORMAN may scan the records of the Finance Department to discover excuses in its behalf, why may not the accusers of the Department have the same privilege for a more creditable purpose? Let us have a full statement, not a few garbled items.

Our German Republican friends evidently realize the necessity of frustrating the efforts of those who are hired to do the dirty work of Tammany, while pretending to be identified with the Republican cause. The German Central Campaign Club call upon their compatriots to vote at the ensuing primaries "for no delegates whatever who are holders of office under Tammany Hall." If this resolution seem to reflect unkindly on Republicans who, though holding office, are independent of Tammany and untainted by its frauds, at least it applies with conspicuous justice to that well-known band of tricksters who have worn the colors of the Republican Party only that they might betray it on election day. For them no intelligent Republican will hereafter cast a vote. They receive Tammany's money,—let them don its livery, and so cease to be the impostors they now are.

JANAUSCHEK ON THE ENGLISH STAGE.

The success which followed Mlle. JANAUSCHEK'S début on the English stage, Monday evening, attended her performance of "Mary Stuart" Friday night. All sorts of cheerless circumstances have stood about this lady, since the beginning of her new career. The fact that she has triumphed in their midst is an additional reason for wondering and rejoicing at her victory. A less suitable house for dramatic representation than the Academy of Music could not be found. The sharp eye and ear might, without difficulty, calculate the velocity of sound from the centre of the auditorium, so large, relatively, is the distance separating the speaker from the listener. A person afflicted with weakness of sight and doomed to tinted glasses might lay bare the optic nerve to the combined lights of the place without a possibility of injuring it. An actor preferring confidential dialogues to the policy of general impartment usually adhered to, might revel in the bliss of fancying himself unheard by spectators, so happily are the proportions of a pretty numerous audience caused to dwindle by the size and arrangement of the theatre. These conditions, it will be admitted, are not inspiriting for the comedian, and are hardly less chilling to the audience. That body has been aggrieved by the presentation, successively, of "Deborah" and of "Mary Stuart," two dramas unending, so far as duration is concerned, and literally done to death, in German, in Italian and in English. Mlle. JANAUSCHEK, in spite of all these obstacles, has, we say, steadily threaded the path shaded with laurels. An assemblage strong in numbers witnessed her personation of Mary Stuart, Thursday. Many were touched by the pathos of the closing scenes, and more were thrilled by the vigor of her acting during the interview between the rival Queens at Fotheringay. The impressiveness of the curse of Deborah has already had ample acknowledgment here. But the passage between Elizabeth and Mary Stuart is one demanding more varied expression and far greater endurance. The vehemence of Mlle. JANAUSCHEK'S denunciation of her jailer was unrivaled, and its intensity was in no way impaired by gesticulation or, indeed, by conventionalism of any kind. She was thrice called before the curtain at the end of the act. Miss FANNY MORANT embodied Queen Elizabeth, Mr. FREDERICK ROBINSON, Mortimer; Mr. MARK SMITH, Sir Amias Paulet, and Mr. J. B. STUDLEY, Lord Burleigh, these artists contributing to the good character of the entertainment. It unable throughout to relieve its monotony. The bill was unchanged last night, and will be repeated for the matinée to-day.

MISS WILSON IN PHILADELPHIA.

Mlle. NILSSON has gone to Philadelphia, and has charmed her hearers in that city. Her first appearance was made on Wednesday night last, and criticisms, numerous and lengthened, appeared on the morrow. The best intentions in respect of spirit and of space appear to underlie all the articles in question, and there is no difference in their verdicts as to the impression Mlle. NILSSON made on the public. One of the journals prints the fact that Mlle. NILSSON'S person shone with diamonds representing the sum of $50,000. It understands, also, "that Mlle. NILSSON is better pleased with her Philadelphia reception than any she has yet had in America. The audience was larger than any in New-York, and the receipts were by $1,500 greater than any single night's receipts in that City, the sales of seats having amounted to over $6,000." We tremble at the result of the efforts other large cities will be compelled to make to outdo so substantial a demonstration of interest in art.

WASHINGTON.

Complexion of the Next Congress—The Republican Two-thirds Majority in the House Destroyed—Resignation of Secretary Cox—Health of Chief Justice Chase.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The following statement of the progress and results of elections for Members of Congress, thus far, has been carefully made and is believed to be strictly correct:

Maine elects five Republicans, leaving her delegation unchanged.

Vermont—Three Republicans; delegation unchanged.

North Carolina elects two Republicans and five Democrats; gain of three Democrats; her delegation at present in Congress standing five Republicans to two Democrats, a Democrat having been elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of DAWKINS.

Pennsylvania—Fourteen Republicans and ten Democrats; net gain of four Democrats.

Ohio—Fourteen Republicans and five Democrats; delegation unchanged.

Indiana—Six Republicans, five Democrats; gain of one Democrat.

Iowa—Six Republicans; unchanged.

Nebraska—One Republican; unchanged.

Oregon—One Democrat; unchanged.

Mississippi elected her delegation of five Republicans to the balance of the Forty-first, and also to the Forty-second Congress.

This makes a total of eighty-two members elected to the Forty-second Congress, of which the Republicans have elected fifty-six and the Democrats twenty-six, or a net gain of eight for the latter. A full House consists of 243 members; but, by reason of vacancies in Georgia, and several deaths and resignations, the present House, as now constituted, contains but 231 members, of whom 167 are Republicans and sixty-six are Democrats. There remain to be elected 161 members, and a careful estimate gives the following as the probable result:

"In Alabama, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Nevada, New-Hampshire, Rhode Island, Virginia and West Virginia, there will probably be no change in the political complexion of the delegations, which now stand fifty-five Republicans to fifteen Democrats. The Democrats will probably gain as follows: In Florida one, by the nomination of a negro and Republican division; in Louisiana, two; in Missouri, two, through Republican divisions; in New-York, two; in South Carolina, which votes next week, one; in Tennessee, by votes of illegally enfranchised rebels, five; in Texas, which votes next February, one; in Wisconsin, one. Total prospective gain, fifteen. The Republicans will gain in Kentucky one, in Maryland two, in Minnesota one, in New-Jersey one; Total, five. Net Democratic gain, ten. Georgia, not in the present Congress, will probably elect in December four Republicans and three Democrats.

This will divide the complexion of the 160 members yet to be elected, into 102 Republicans and 59 Democrats, which, added to those already elected, will make the next House stand 158 Republicans to 85 Democrats—or just enough to destroy the present two-thirds majority of the Republicans, a thing not to be deplored. It is believed that this estimate, which is based upon the results of the elections thus far held, will not be varied five votes by the official returns.

RESIGNATION OF SECRETARY COX.

There is another change in the Cabinet. It is announced to-night that Secretary COX has tendered his resignation, and that the President has accepted the same. Of this there is no doubt. The acceptance is to take effect when the annual report of the Interior Department is finished, which will be in the course of thirty days. No name has yet been indicated as his successor. The reasons for the withdrawal are understood to be entirely personal; and the relations of the President and the Secretary have been and still are of the most agreeable character.

PERSONAL.

Advices received here concerning the health of Chief-Justice CHASE indicate that it is very doubtful if he will ever be able to resume his seat upon the Supreme Bench.

The President, Secretary BOREMAN, and Postmaster-General CRESWELL returned from the Maryland State Fair at 10 o'clock to-night.

Gen. SHERMAN returned to Washington this morning.

DISSATISFACTION AMONG TREASURY CLERKS.

While the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill was passing through Congress, the section prepared at the Treasury Department providing for nine heads of division at $2,500 each was stricken out. An appropriation of $22,500 for "additional clerks in the Secretary's office" was, however, inserted in its place. After some discussion as to the meaning of this clause it has been decided to use the amount in giving additional compensation to the heads of divisions, now receiving only $1,800, and to such other clerks as may appear to deserve extra pay. The heads of divisions are, therefore, receiving $2,500 each, and some other clerks from $300 to $500 more than the regular pay of their grades, and of course there is the natural amount of grumbling among those who think their claims to a share have been overlooked.

Another Wall-Street Forgery—A Timely Discovery.

Another forgery was discovered in Wall-street yesterday. Some days ago J. R. LIVINGSTON, after some negotiation, bought $100,000 Kansas railroad bonds of WELLS, FARGO & Co. at 77½, and gave in exchange what purported to be a certified check of HALLGARTEN & Co., for $77,000 on the Park Bank. The check was deposited in the Continental Bank, and in the course of business came to the Park Bank. The forgery was so well executed that it was not discovered until the teller came to prove his certificates, when it was returned to the Continental Bank stamped as forged. Mr. TIMPSON, the Cashier of the Continental, commenced an investigation into the fraud, and yesterday discovered that LIVINGSTON borrowed $30,000 on the bonds from the Commercial Warehouse Company, and received two checks of $15,000 each on the Park Bank and Manhattan Company. These checks were deposited with CAULDWELL & Co., who were ordered to buy $30,000 five-twenties. This order being executed, LIVINGSTON called for the bonds, and requested the balance in money. He got a broker by the name of CHADWICK to identify him, but CAULDWELL & Co. were not even then satisfied, and demanded an identification from the Commercial Warehouse Company. At this stage Mr. TIMPSON interfered, and exposed the character of LIVINGSTON, but unfortunately no arrest was made.

Damages to Railroads by the Late Flood.

Through travel by way of the Washington, Alexandria and Lynchburg Road (the great southern mail route) will be resumed on Monday. A telegram from Mr. VANDERBERRY, general superintendent of the Orange and Alexandria Road, reports this road again in running order. The damages to this line by the recent gale and heavy rains were over-estimated. The Chesapeake and Ohio Road, extending from Gordonsville to Charlottesville, is expected to be in good condition by Monday; also, the Virginia and Tennessee Road, which extends from Lynchburg to Bristol. Other railroads in East Tennessee were not injured by the floods and are running as usual. The Pan-handle connection of the Pennsylvania Central Road suffered considerable loss through the subsidence of the flood at a point a few miles west of Pittsburg, where a part of a culvert caved in upon the main track. Passengers were for some time transferred over the breakage in consequence.

The Political Situation in Madrid—Impatience of Further Continuance of Prim's Personal Government—Spanish Intrigues in Portuguese Politics.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Madrid correspondent of the NEW-YORK TIMES writing on the 10th inst., says the political situation is daily becoming worse. As the time approaches for the re-opening of the Cortes, different parties express an anxious desire to put an end to the personal Government of Gen. PRIM. Overtures made by letter from the Ministry for conciliation have met the same fate as his proposition to accord the attributes of the Royal Power to the Regent. A review of 30,000 troops took place in Madrid on the 8th inst., before the Regent. Grave accusations are made against Señor FIGUEROLA, Minister of Finance, in reference to illegal loans.

The news from Lisbon continues to be bad. The King is daily falling in greater disfavor. Portuguese Commissioners who have arrived incognito in Madrid, have had frequent conferences with Gen. PRIM, and the intrigues of Spanish diplomacy are already producing their fruits in Portugal. The unfortunate King has entirely lost moral ascendency.

The Recent Storm in Great Britain—Reports of Destruction on the Coast and Ireland.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The telegraphs and mails are bringing accounts of the late storm from all directions. Heavy showers prevailed in the mill region of Lancashire, raising the streams and causing disastrous freshets. The shipping in the Mersey was badly damaged. No American losses are yet reported. The land telegraph lines throughout Ireland were prostrated, delaying and disorganizing the Atlantic cable service. The City of Liverpool has already voted relief to the sufferers in that region.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 14.—The report of the Second Chamber, on the annual budget, is unfavorable to the administration. The opposition demanded explanations relative to the debt of Luxembourg and the Venezuelan question. A simplification of the diplomatic system was also urged.

Bank of England Statement—The Newmarket Races—The Papal Protest Against Roman Annexation.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Bank statement is scarcely so favorable this week. The amount of bullion on hand last night was £26,000 sterling less than at the corresponding time last week. ....Yesterday was the fourth day of the Newmarket October meeting. The Handicap Sweepstakes was won by Faraway, beating Sornette, second, and Prior, third....The rumored declaration of war against China is contradicted.... The Papal protest against the annexation of Rome to Italy has been published. It is a long document, but contains no new facts.

MARINE DISASTERS.

Sinking of the Steamer Continental on the Pacific Coast—Eight Lives Lost—Burning of a New-York and Wilmington, N. C., Steamer—Other Disasters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—The steam-ship Colorado, from Panama, put into San Diego this morning, and reports that the steam-ship Continental, from Mazatlan, Mexico, for San Francisco, foundered at sea, thirty miles off Cape St. Lucas, on the 30th of September. Seven of the passengers and one of the crew were lost.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 14.—The steamer Continental left Mazatlan with a full complement of passengers, $140,000 in treasure, 700 tons of salt, and a large mail. On the 28th of September, she encountered a severe gale in the Gulf and sprung a leak. The pumps were worked constantly for twelve hours, but to no avail. At 9 o'clock on the morning of the 29th the water reached the furnaces, putting out the fires. All hopes of saving the vessel were then abandoned, and six boats, filled with people, shoved off. Seven passengers and the second cook refused to leave the steamer, and went down with her. Two of the boats arrived at Cape St. Lucas on the evening of the 30th. The other boats landed near Cape St. Lucas. The following is a list of the lost: MANUEL RUBIO, Mazatlan; JOSE MONAS, San Luis Potosi; J. B. LYTLE, M. MARTINEZ, and three Mexicans, names unknown. The escaped passengers and a portion of the crew are on board the steamer Colorado, and expected here on Sunday next. The others of the crew are on the gun-boat Ossipee. The Continental's treasure and mails are a total loss.

BURNING OF THE WASHINGTON.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 14.—The steam-ship Washington, Capt. G. W. WALLACE, which left this port today, took fire nine miles below this city, and was run ashore on a point of Big Island. Her cargo consists of about 700 barrels of spirits turpentine, 300 bales of cotton, and a few barrels of resin. Two hours since, the fire had burst through the upper deck, and there is no doubt the vessel will prove a total loss. One of the city fire companies, with a steamer, has been dispatched to the scene in the hope of saving part of her cargo. The cargo is fully insured. The Washington is a steamer of 400 tons burden, and was on her way to New-York. She is valued at $40,000, and is partially insured in the Sun and Atlantic Insurance Companies, and in the American Lloyds. It is not known whether her cargo is insured or not.

OTHER DISASTERS.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The bark Maclaren, which arrived at Shields today, was obliged to throw overboard nearly the whole of her cargo, consisting of chemicals. A fire had broken out, and it became necessary to sacrifice the cargo to save the vessel.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 14.—A large American ship, name unknown, is reported ashore at Washwood, about twenty-two miles south of Cape Henry. Assistance has gone to her.

HOLMES' HOLE, Mass., Oct. 14.—The brig San Carlos, PARKER, of and for Portland, from Philadelphia, with coal, arrived here today with foremast and all attached gone, having been hove down on the 7th inst. in a violent squall from the North-east.

CRIMES AND CRIMINALS.

The Philadelphia Election Shooting Case—Ante-Mortem Statement of Nolen—Sentence of a Murderer in Little Valley, N. Y.—Postponement of a Murder Trial.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—The physicians have pronounced the wound received by NOLEN, yesterday, as fatal in character. He has made the following deposition:

I, JOHN C. NOLEN, do solemnly and sincerely make this, my dying deposition: That I was shot with a pistol in the hands of ALEXANDER CRAWFORD. And I further declare that this murder was committed at the instigation of and by the agency of WILLIAM B. MANN, late District-Attorney; this act being done while I was upon the floor of the Court-room on Chestnut-street, near Fifth. JOHN C. NOLEN.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 13th day of October, A. D. 1870.

J. MCCOLGAN, Alderman.

Mr. MANN admits telling CRAWFORD to defend himself, but denies that he told him to shoot NOLEN. The pistol used by CRAWFORD was taken by him, a few minutes before the shooting, from the hands of a man named AHERN, one of the persons who attempted to enter the Court-room where the judges of election returns were holding their session.

LITTLE VALLEY, N. Y., Oct. 14.—DANIEL C. BURDICK was sentenced, today, to be hanged on the 25th of November next, for the murder of HENRY H. BAKER, colored, in Olean, in October, 1869. On being asked by the Court whether he had anything to say why the sentence of death should not be pronounced upon him, he replied that he was satisfied with the efforts of his counsel and with his trial, and with the charge of the Court to the jury, but was surprised at the verdict. He said that he killed the negro in self-defence and without malice, and only intended to wound him, in order to get home from him, when he fired the fatal shot....The trial of CHAS. SMITH for the murder of his wife, in June last, has been put over to the next January Term of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, on the motion of the District-Attorney, Dr. GRAY, of Ulica, having pronounced him insane.

THE LATE ROBERT E. LEE.

The Senatus in State at Washington College—Resolutions of the Faculty—Proposition to Name the College as Washington-Lee College—Place of Interment—Honors in Southern Cities.

LEXINGTON, Va., Oct. 14.—Everything about Lexington indicates a house of mourning. Today, as upon the two previous days, all the business houses were closed, and mechanics and artisans have ceased to work, and a deep gloom pervades the whole community. Memorial services were held yesterday and this morning in the College Chapel, and were largely attended. Rev. Dr. J. PENDLETON, Gen. LEE's old Chief of Artillery, was so moved in commencing the services, that it was with great difficulty he could proceed. The remains of Gen. LEE were conveyed from his residence to the College Chapel, the following being the order of the procession:

Escort of honor, consisting of officers and soldiers of the late Confederate Army,
The Chaplain and other clergy.
Pall-bearers with the body.
"Old Gray," the war-horse that carried the General through all his campaigns in the late war.
The Trustees and Faculty of Washington College.
The students of Washington College.
Visitors, officers and cadets, Masons and Odd Fellows.
Citizens.

The pall-bearers were Judge F. Anderson, David E. Moore, Senior Trustees of Washington College; Ex-Gov. John Letcher, Col. M. F. Maury, of the Virginia Military Institute; Col. W. Preston Johnston, Hon. Randolph Tucker, Professor of Washington College, William L. Prather, Edward P. Clarke, students of Washington College; Capt. J. C. Bonde, Capt. J. P. Moore, W. G. White and J. G. Steele, citizens of Lexington.

ACTION OF THE PEOPLE OF LEXINGTON.

The remains lie in state in the college chapel, where they will remain until interment to-morrow at 12 o'clock M. They are visited by thousands of the grief-stricken people. The ladies of Lexington claimed it as their privilege to drape in mourning the college chapel, which Gen. LEE built. They will also drape the Episcopal Church, of which he was a devout member. Meetings have been held by the College Faculty, the students, and the several literary societies, and also by the officers and soldiers of the late Confederate Army resident at Lexington, and by the citizens of Lexington en masse. Touching resolutions have been adopted to give expression to the universal sense of sorrow.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE COLLEGE FACULTY.

The Faculty of Washington College, after an appropriate preamble, reciting the principal events in the life of Gen. LEE, and commemorating his character and services, adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in the midst of the deep calamity which has befallen us in the death of our beloved President, the Faculty of Washington College, experience a profound pleasure and pride in recognising the fact that the fame of Gen. LEE, while it belongs to the whole country, is in an especial sense, the heritage of Washington College, and that it is our duty, as it is our privilege, to provide here suitable memorials wherein this precious possession shall be acknowledged, and his name publicly held in grateful remembrance by this College for all future time.

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to confer with a like Committee of the Board of Visitors, and propose measures and plans for the erection of a suitable monument to Gen. LEE, in the room in which his remains are to be interred, and further, to consider and recommend such other monuments or memorials as may be deemed appropriate in the college.

Resolved, That the said Committees be requested to initiate such arrangements for the delivery of a eulogy on the life and character of Gen. LEE, in the College chapel, on the 19th day of January, 1871, being the next anniversary of his birthday, and we also express the wish that this anniversary, like the birthday of WASHINGTON, shall be hereafter always celebrated in Washington College.

Resolved, That these Committees be requested to confer and report to their respective bodies on the subject of so amending the present charter of Washington College that the name of this institution may hereafter express in fit conjunction the immortal names of WASHINGTON and LEE, whose lives were so similar in their perfect renown, and with both of whom equally by singular good fortune it is entitled to be associated in its future history.

Gen. LEE remarked two years ago to Gen. PENDLETON that he did not expect to live longer than two years more. The evening he was taken sick he was unusually bright and cheerful. The remote reason of Gen. LEE's death was the long continuance of depressing moral causes, commencing with the weighty responsibilities and anxieties during the last year of the war, and the effect which the overthrow of the cause he loved, and the condition of the South since, has had upon him. But he bore all with calm exterior, and devoted himself to the duty of the hour. The proximate cause of his death was mental and physical fatigue, inducing nervous congestion of the brain, which gradually caused cerebral exhaustion and death.

THE PLACE OF INTERMENT.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 14.—A message has been received here by Mr. A. M. KEILEY, Chairman of the Committee of the House of Delegates, to the effect that the family of Gen. LEE would not be averse to the burial of his remains in Holly-wood Cemetery, Richmond, Va., on the section belonging to the State. The Committee of the House therefore left the city, this morning, for Lexington. These facts were announced in the Legislature, this morning, and that body adjourned over until Tuesday next. It is now believed that the body of Gen. LEE will reach here on Monday.

Honors Elsewhere—Large Meeting in Washington.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—A large meeting of the residents of Washington, with a liberal intermixture of men who served in the rebel army, was held at Metzerott Hall, to-night, to do honor to the memory of Gen. LEE. W. W. CORCORAN presided, with about twenty prominent citizens as Vice-Presidents and Secretaries. Dr. A. Y. P. Garnett, James M. Carlisle, Judge Phillips, Ex-Mayor Berrett, Gens. Jones and Henningsen, and Col. Pickett, were among the members of the Committee on Resolutions, which treated briefly of Gen. LEE's virtues as a man. Eulogistic speeches were made by JAMES M. CARLISLE, R. T. MERRICK and others.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 14.—The death of Gen. LEE caused profound sorrow here. The bells were tolled, yesterday, and flags were half-masted on the shipping and throughout the city. The Chamber of Commerce met this morning and took appropriate action. A public meeting of the citizens will be held to-morrow noon. Business will probably be suspended during the day.

NEW-ORLEANS, Oct. 14.—Business is suspended, and the houses throughout the city draped in mourning in honor of Gen. LEE.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 14.—The Mayor of Savannah has issued a proclamation causing to-morrow to be observed with fitting demonstrations in honor of the memory of Gen. R. E. LEE. All business will be suspended; all the bells of the city will be tolled at intervals of fifteen minutes, and a meeting of the citizens will be held at 12 o'clock noon. The City Exchange and public offices will be draped in mourning, and services will be held in the various churches of the city.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Oct. 14.—A public meeting of citizens was held this evening, and resolutions were passed in honor to the illustrious dead. All the business houses and city offices will be closed to-morrow. Bells will be tolled and services held in all the churches.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14.—The City Council, to-night, passed resolutions requesting the Mayor to issue a proclamation asking that all the flags in the city be displayed at half-mast to-morrow, ordering their Chambers to be draped in mourning, and an adjournment until Monday, out of respect to the memory of Gen. R. E. LEE.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 14.—A large demonstration of sorrow at the death of Gen. ROBERT E. LEE was held here to-night. About 300 ex-Confederates were present, and resolutions of condolence were passed. Speeches were delivered by numbers of prominent ex-Confederates, among whom were Gen. JOHN C. BROWN, Democratic candidate for Governor, and Col. J. BURCHCOOK. The speeches manifested the sincerest admiration of the life and character of the lamented hero—not only in war, but in peace—and attributed to his wise counsel, since the surrender, the present peaceful condition of the country.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 14.—Extensive preparations are going on for the obsequies of Gen. R. E. LEE to-morrow. The Legislature of Georgia, the Judiciary and everybody, without distinction of party, will take part.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 14.—Nearly all the business houses in this city were draped in mourning today, out of respect to the memory of Gen. LEE. The bells were tolled, and business was in a great measure suspended.

The Arlington Estate—Whose Property Is It?

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The death of Gen. LEE has brought into discussion the subject of the Government possession of the Arlington estate, opposite this city, formerly his property and residence, and which, it has been supposed, was held by the United States under the provisions of the Confiscation law. In this connection the Evening Star of this city today publishes the following:

It is supposed by many that the Government holds possession of Arlington by reason of the Confiscation act, and according to the provisions of that law the title can only be vested in the Government during the life of the party who engaged in the rebellion. Hence it is said that Arlington now reverts to the heirs of Gen. LEE. Such is not the case, however, as the property is not held under the Confiscation act, not having belonged to Gen. LEE. At the death of Mr. CURTIS, a life interest in it was bequeathed to Mrs. LEE, his daughter, and at her death it was to be his grandson's, CURTIS and FITZ HUGH LEE. The taxes upon the property having accumulated during the rebellion, it was sold therefor and purchased by the Government. This it will be seen it is held by virtue of a tax title. Subsequently, efforts were made to redeem it by paying the amount of taxes; but, so far, they have been unsuccessful, and the title is still vested in the Government, by virtue of the tax sale alluded to. As the Arlington estate has now been converted into a great national cemetery, and is filled with the bones of those who fell in the war of the rebellion, it cannot well be used for any other purpose, and its possession could hardly be desirable to the LEE family.

The Aurora Last Night—Its Remarkable Brilliancy.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 14.—The most brilliant display of northern lights ever observed in this section took place this evening at 7 o'clock. They were of a deep crimson color, and continued about an hour.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 14.—There was a magnificent display of the aurora borealis here to-night. The whole firmament was one blaze of crimson light, lasting for several minutes.

NEW-HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 14.—There was a grand auroral display this evening. The red light in the heavens was mistaken for a conflagration, and some one sounded the fire alarm and the Department turned out.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 14.—A remarkably fine auroral display was witnessed by thousands here to-night.

NORWICH, Conn., Oct. 14.—There was a brilliant display of the aurora borealis here to-night, which attracted the gaze of a large number of people.

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 14.—One of the most startling and gorgeous displays of the aurora borealis ever seen in this latitude was witnessed to-night. Crowds of people were in the streets to witness the spectacle.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—There was a very fine display of northern lights here, this evening.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 14.—About 7 o'clock, this evening, there was a grand display of the aurora borealis.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 14.—HAYWARD P. CUSHING, a prominent business man of this city, died last evening, after several weeks' illness.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 14.—The first colored jury was impaneled in the Criminal Court, by Judge A. L. ROBINSON, today.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 14.—Mrs. Senator MORTON is dangerously ill.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 14.—The stolen bag belonging to the American Merchants' Union Express Company was found this afternoon in a race-way, minus the $15,000 which it contained when stolen. The papers were all in the bag together with three silver spoons.

Personal.

One of the most assiduous and accomplished American artists now in Rome is Miss FOLEY. Our countrymen sojourning in the regenerated and now national city, the ensuing Winter, will find no one more deserving of substantial encouragement. There lies her ore us, as we write, a most exquisite design for a fountain. Three lovely Cupids are playfully grouped around a very picturesque and foliated centre-piece rising from a marble basin. We should like to see such a fountain in the Central Park. Miss FOLEY excels in bas-reliefs, both portrait and ideal, and there is no more convenient or inexpensive form of plastic art, to bring home as a memorial of Rome. We would mention among her most charming efforts of this kind, "Graziella, a Capri Girl;" "Psaccucca, a Famous Roman Model;" "Undine;" "A Trastevrina;" "Joshua;" and "Jeremiah." Among the portrait reliefs are excellent heads of S. C. HALL, and a daughter of LUCRETIA MOTT. One special advantage possessed by this kind of sculpture is that it photographs admirably, and those inclined to order copies in marble can select from these fac-similes, some of which are in the possession of Miss FOLEY's friends, in this City.

"LETTER FROM THE CASHIER."
STERLING BANK, TOLEDO, O., Sept. 22, 1870.
Messrs. Herring, Farrel & Sherman, New-York:
GENTS: Our bank was entered by burglars on the night of Sept. 19, and a desperate attempt made to open the banker's chest we bought from you a few years since. They wedged the doors, to our vault, introduced powder, and blew it open. Your safe was the next object of their attention, and was fully tested. They tried it with wedges, sledges, powder, &c., but it still remained intact, and held our valuables all secure, though it bears evidence of a hard fight.
We wish you would send us another of same size, with your new patent tongue and groove door, with rubber-packed flange and all late improvements.
Respectfully yours,

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

PUBLISHED THIS DAY.

MOMMSEN'S HISTORY OF ROME.
VOLUME IV. NOW COMPLETE.
VOLUME IV.
With a copious Index of the whole History, prepared expressly for this edition, uniform with volumes I., II. and III., printed upon tinted laid paper, from the latest London edition, with all the author's and translator's corrections and additions.
1 vol., crown 8vo, price per vol., in cloth, $2.
The set, to be kept clean, for $8. The same in half-calf at $15.
Mommsen's great work is unhesitatingly accepted as the standard History of Rome. It is commended by its clear style, its conciseness and accuracy of statement, and above all, by the masterly and highly philosophical manner in which it summarizes the results of all previous investigations. The index, which is full and exhaustive, adds greatly to the value of the work, and gives it a decided superiority over every other edition published.

THE THEOLOGY OF CHRIST.
By J. P. THOMPSON, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tabernacle Church, New-York.
1 vol., crown 8vo, $2.
The work is marked throughout by that vigor and eloquence which uniformly distinguish the writings of this eminent author and divine, and will attract wide attention.

A NEW VOLUME OF
THE ILLUSTRATED LIBRARY OF WONDERS.
THE WONDERS OF ACOUSTICS.
By R. RADAU.
With 110 illustrations, printed on tinted paper. One vol., 12mo. Price $1 50.
In this book the science of sound is treated of in a readable as well as simple manner. Going back to the early attempts of the ancients to cultivate the different varieties of sound, the subject is brought down to the most recent dates, showing the advances in this science, and the advantages to be derived therefrom. The volume forms a valuable addition to the series.
The volumes in the Illustrated Library of Wonders already published—fourteen in number—contain over six hundred illustrations, and are as follows:

Each 1 vol., 12mo.	Price, per vol., $1 50.
Wonders of Architecture.	Egypt 3,200 Years Ago.
Wonders of the Human Body.	Great Hunts.
The Wonders of Italian Art.	Intelligence of Animals.
The Sublime in Nature.	Wonders of Heat.
Wonders of Glass-making.	Wonders of Optics.
The Sun.	Thunder and Lightning.
Wonders of Pompeii.	Light-houses and Lightships.

A handsomely illustrated Catalogue, giving full descriptive paragraphs of the above-named volumes of this series, will be sent on application.
The above books sent postpaid to any address, by the publishers, upon receipt of price.

A NEW SERIES OF ORIGINAL STORIES.
THE SPRINGDALE STORIES. By Mrs. E. R. C. SAMUELS. 24mo. 24 illustrations. Per volume, 75 cents. Comprising: ADELE. ERLE. HERBERT. NETTLE'S TRIAL. JOHNSTONE'S FARM. ENNISFELLEN.
Mrs. Samuels is a pleasing writer; whose contributions to Oliver Optic's and other juvenile magazines have been eagerly welcomed by young people. None of the stories in this series have ever been published before. The scenes are laid in the City of New-York; the Far-Inland of the Far West; the schools of Acton; the chalk cliffs of England; the Castle of Ennisfellen in Germany; affording rich material for an agreeable and instructive series of story-books, which the author has profitably employed. The whole series is admirably illustrated by Miss L. B. Humphrey.
II.
A NEW SERIES OF PRUDY AND DOTTY BOOKS.
LITTLE FOLKS ASTRAY. By SOPHIE MAY. 16mo. Illustrated. 75 cents. The first of PRUDY'S FLYAWAY STORIES. Uniform with LITTLE PRUDY, and DOTTY DIMPLE STORIES.
"The publication of the 'Little Prudy' and 'Dotty Dimple' stories is an era in the lives of mothers. The monotonous drudgery of reading or telling a story to the little ones is made pleasant to the narrator and listener, when Dotty Dimple is the hero. Sophie May has succeeded in embodying to perfection the quaint originality of childhood, all its unfathomed tenderness, its serious earnestness, its restless, frolicsome spirit, and the delicious oddity of its ideas."—Independent.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

The Real Estate market was without an event yesterday, (Oct. 13,) as no sales were made at the Exchange or elsewhere. The adjourned sale of JOHNSON & MILLER, of property at New-Dorp, Staten Island, on Thursday, was quite successful, all the property offered being disposed of at fair prices. A complete report of the transactions will be found below. Today the Dobb's Ferry sale, under the direction of JOHNSON & MILLER, will take place; and as the property is particularly desirable, the result should be a satisfactory one. A. J. BLEECKER, SON & Co. will also offer today, at Pelham, Westchester County, some desirable property. The former sale begins at 12½, and the latter at 1 P. M. We shall endeavor to report both of these auctions in full in this column on Monday.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

J. JOHNSON, Jr., Auctioneer.
BY JOHNSON & MILLER.
SATURDAY, OCT. 15,
At 12½ o'clock, on the premises.
ABSOLUTE AND UNRESERVED SALE, BY ORDER OF JEREMIAH LARMOUR, Esq.,
OF 16 SPLENDID LOTS ON BROADWAY,
AND 25 ACRES CHOICE LAND, divided into several elegant building sites, being part of the PAULDING ESTATE, beautifully situated at

DOBB'S FERRY,
ON THE HUDSON,

selected with great care by the present owner, as constituting the MOST CHARMING SITES FOR COUNTRY RESIDENCES ON THE HUDSON RIVER. This first-class property is now for the first time offered at public sale. It is surrounded by the handsome residence of Messrs. Paton, Barbour, Cochrane, Olyphant, Hasch and Schwartzwalder, at distant only three minutes' walk from the depot, and lies on an elevated ridge, from which there is afforded a varied and extensive landscape. The views of the river, mountains and valleys at this point are of the most picturesque character.

Communication by steam-boat and cars frequent. After May 1 Hudson River trains will run hourly, and the New-York and Boston Road through New Mill Valley will be completed for travel next Summer.

The PLOTS ON BROADWAY—a continuation of the WEST-SIDE BOULEVARD—are very desirable for villa residences, being situated in a select neighborhood, and only three minutes' walk from the depot. THIS PROPERTY WILL BE RESTRICTED AGAINST NUISANCES.

The following choice plots will also be sold:

PLOT OF SIX ACRES situated on private road, with large front on Broadway.

PLOT OF TWO ACRES situated on private road near Broadway.

MAGNIFICENT PLOT OF FOURTEEN ACRES, laid out in lawn, drives, &c., at a cost of $30,000, to render it available for immediate improvement. It must be seen to be appreciated.

Without exaggeration, the above is the choicest and most desirable property in the market. It is first-class in every respect. THE SALE WILL BE POSITIVE AND WITHOUT RESERVE. EVERY PLOT OFFERED WILL BE SOLD IN A BONA FIDE MANNER.

Parties seeking investment, or those intending to build, are particularly invited to examine the property, attend the sale and purchase one or more of the most magnificent sites ever offered on the grandest river of the world. Mr. C. G. Storms will be at the depot daily to show the property. SPECIAL CARS will be attached to the 11 o'clock express train of the Hudson River Railroad. For maps and full particulars apply to JOHNSON & MILLER, No. 25 Nassau-st., New-York, and No. 157 Montague-st., Brooklyn.

Closing-out Sale

OF LOTS AND PLOTS,

AT RUTHERFURD PARK.

On TUESDAY, Oct. 25, 1870,

A. J. BLEECKER, SON & CO., Auctioneers, will sell on the premises of the

RUTHERFURD PARK ASSOCIATION,

ABOUT 800 CITY LOTS, IN PLOTS, and 90 acres of land, in one parcel, between two railroads, close on the property. Sale peremptory. Terms very easy. Title perfect. Free collation on the ground. Sale to begin at 12 A. M. A special train on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, Boonton Branch, will leave New-York, by Barclay and Christopher-street Ferries, at 11 o'clock, and the train will leave Hoboken at 11¼ A. M.; also from ferries foot of Chambers and 23d-st., by Erie Railway. For circulars and free passes apply to the auctioneer, at No. 77 Cedar-st., and in the office of the Company, at No. 132 Hudson-st., Jersey City.

ADRIAN H. MULLER, Auctioneer.

PEREMPTORY SALE, BY ORDER of Executrix, of VALUABLE VILLA SITES on WASHINGTON HEIGHTS, and FIFTY-FOUR LOTS on BROADWAY.

ADRIAN H. MULLER, P. R. WILKINS & CO., will sell at auction, on TUESDAY, Oct. 25, 1870, at 12 o'clock, at the Exchange Sales-room, No. 111 Broadway, (by order of the executrix of Lucius Chittenden, deceased,)

SEVENTEEN VILLA SITES,

containing an area of from fifteen to twenty-two lots each, situate on adjoining the elegant villas of Hon. William M. Tweed, James Gordon Bennett, Joseph Potter and James Fisher, Esqs.

WASHINGTON HEIGHTS,

This property is part of a large tract on the Heights purchased by the late Mr. Chittenden in his life-time, and was reserved as being the property on the Heights. It commands an extensive

CHOICEST AND MOST DESIRABLE

VIEW OF THE HUDSON AND HARLEM RIVERS, and of the beautiful valley lying between the Heights and Harlem River, and for

HEALTHFULNESS OF LOCATION, BEAUTY, GRANDEUR AND VARIETY OF SCENERY

is not excelled by any property on

NEW-YORK ISLAND OR ITS VICINITY.

THE NEW RIVER BOULEVARD,

now being laid out under the direction of the CENTRAL PARK COMMISSIONERS, and which runs through the westerly portion of this property, will, when completed, add greatly to its accessibility; and its course being along the high land on the BANK OF THE HUDSON RIVER and the RIVER SIDE PARK, will afford the most BEAUTIFUL AND PICTURESQUE DRIVE on the island.

The new road on the westerly side of the property is now open to carriages, and will eventually connect the plots on the hill by a beautifully shaded drive with the Boulevard.

The property is also but a short drive from CENTRAL PARK.

Also,

fifty-four lots adjoining the above-described property, and fronting on which is to be widened, making it one of the best roads on the island.

THE NEW TOWER AT HIGH BRIDGE RESERVOIR,

now nearly finished, will, when completed, distribute the Croton water through houses that may be erected on the highest point.

The property will be sold under

RESTRICTIONS AGAINST NUISANCES.

Seventy per cent. may remain on bond and mortgage of the premises.

Maps at the office of the auctioneer, No. 7 Pine-st., or at the office of Messrs. STALLKNECHT & HALL, Attorneys, No. 39 Nassau-st.

MONTCLAIR RAILWAY

(OF NEW-JERSEY.)

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

INDORSED BY THE

N. Y. AND OSWEGO MIDLAND RAILROAD CO.

The only railroad now building from New-York Harbor toward the West is the GREAT MIDLAND ROAD.

The First Mortgage Bonds of THE MONTCLAIR RAILWAY COMPANY, (the New-Jersey section of the Midland,) are now offered to the amount only of

HALF A MILLION OF DOLLARS.

They are payable, principal and interest,

IN GOLD.

The rate of interest is 7 per cent. payable semi-annually, FREE FROM GOVERNMENT TAX.

These bonds are secured by a first mortgage to MARCUS L. WARD and ABRAM S. HEWITT, Trustees, on the most valuable and profitable portion of THE MIDLAND RAILROAD, the sale of which will alone suffice to pay a fair profit on the cost of construction.

The Montclair Railway

having been leased perpetually to the New-York and Oswego Midland Railroad Company, becomes an integral part of that great road, and its BONDS ARE GUARANTEED by that Company.

NEARLY 200 MILES in extent of this most important railroad are now completed and in successful operation, and THE MONTCLAIR RAILWAY, constituting the eastern terminal section—forty miles in length—in process of rapid construction, and will be completed by December, 1871, contemporaneously with the entire line, thereby establishing a new route from New-York westerly by way of Oswego, fifty miles shorter than by the Central, and by way of Buffalo seventy miles shorter than either the Central or the Erie Roads.

We recommend these bonds as a safe and valuable investment, because

First—They are secured by a first mortgage on THE MONTCLAIR RAILWAY and all its franchises, and EACH BOND BEARS THE INDORSEMENT of the

NEW-YORK AND OSWEGO MIDLAND RAILROAD COMPANY.

Second—The LOCAL TRAFFIC of this road must be large, as it connects New-York City with its most attractive suburbs, thereby insuring a profitable business to the road.

Third—The franchises of the Company, embracing lines of railway and the location of an INDEPENDENT FERRY across Hudson River, all of which are included in the mortgage, confer a value on these bonds in addition to that afforded by the main line.

Fourth—The entire capital of both Companies, amounting at the present time to nearly $6,000,000 PAID IN, all of which has been faithfully devoted to the economical construction of the road, is liable for the payment of these bonds.

Fifth—The large rate of interest,

PAYABLE IN GOLD COIN,

affords to holders of Government Bonds a great inducement to change their investment. For instance: A Government 5 Bond of $1,000 costs (say)..... $1,100
Yielding an income of..... 60
$1,100, invested in Montclair Railway Bonds, at par, yield an income of..... 77
Difference, $17, or 25½ per cent.

These bonds are issued in denominations of $1,000, $500 and $100, respectively. For sale by

A FIRST-CLASS INVESTMENT.

Cherry Valley, Sharon and Albany Railroad

FIRST MORTGAGE

Seven Per Cent. Convertible Bonds.

INTEREST PAYABLE JUNE 15 AND DEC. 15,

AT THE METROPOLITAN NATIONAL BANK, IN THE CITY OF NEW-YORK.

THE CHERRY VALLEY, SHARON AND ALBANY RAILROAD connects Albany, by way of Cobleskill, with the largely frequented watering places, Sharon Springs and Cherry Valley. It runs through a very rich agricultural country, thickly settled, and many thriving villages. The length of the road is twenty-two miles from Cobleskill to Cherry Valley; it is perpetually leased to the ALBANY AND SUSQUEHANNA RAILROAD, which road is again perpetually leased to the DELAWARE AND HUDSON CANAL COMPANY. The lease made to the latter Company provides that they shall run and keep in first-class order the Cherry Valley, Sharon and Albany Railroad, the latter to receive fifty per cent. of the gross earnings. THE ROAD IS THOROUGHLY WELL BUILT AND EQUIPPED, AND HAS RUN REGULARLY SINCE THE 10TH OF JUNE LAST. GROSS EARNINGS HAVE BEEN PAID.

June	$1,522 97
July	1,733 00
August	2,142 00

OF WHICH FIFTY PER CENT. IS PAID TO THIS ROAD, AND IT IS THUS DEMONSTRATED THAT IN THE FIRST FEW MONTHS THEIR EARNINGS EXCEED BY THIRTY PER CENT. THE REQUIREMENTS FOR INTEREST OF THESE FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS. There is no doubt but the business in future will increase vastly, and it is not extravagant to estimate the earnings of the next year at double those of this year, thus making privileges of conversion a valuable one, as the road will no doubt soon earn dividends of ten per cent. per annum.

THE CAPITAL STOCK IS $800,000, WHICH HAS BEEN ALL SUBSCRIBED AND PAID UP IN CASH. The whole issue of Mortgage Bonds is $300,000, which is the only lien on the entire property. The trustees of the mortgage are J. Pierrepont Morgan, of Dabney, Morgan & Co., and S. Olcott, Vice-President of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, of Albany.

The bonds bear seven per cent. interest, and are convertible into stock at the option of the holder.

Fifty thousand dollars of the bonds have been sold, and we offer the remaining $250,000 AT 92½ AND ACCRUED INTEREST, AND DO NOT HESITATE TO RECOMMEND THEM AS AN UNDOUBTED 7 BOND, WHICH WE CONSIDER AS A PERFECTLY SAFE INVESTMENT TO ANY FIRST MORTGAGE BOND QUOTED AT THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

TAMMANY'S TACTICS.

How the Republican Party of This City is Deceived—Account of the Operations of the Tammany Republicans—What the Latter are Ordered to do—Instructions from Tweed and Sweeny—The Proposed Meeting To-night.

The articles in the TIMES exposing the secret efforts of certain local politicians, known as Tammany Republicans, toward securing the success of the "Ring" at the November election, created the wildest consternation among the leaders of the Tammany Democracy, and added to the previous dismay of the latter in consequence of the defeat of their "tools" at the last meeting of the Republican General Committee. The "wolves in sheep's clothing," as the pseudo Republicans are termed, were highly discomfited with the disclosure of their strategic machinations for continuing the supremacy of the dishonest rulers of this City, and were upbraided by the honest members of their own party for their traitorous actions, and by their Democratic masters for their ill-success. It has been ascertained that the programme of the Tammany despots was to have their friends and office-holders in the Republican ranks obtain a majority of the delegates to be chosen for the Republican County Convention on Tuesday next, in order to control that body. They hoped that by so doing they could be able to prevent the Convention from indorsing the nomination of an anti-Tammany candidate for Mayor, besides compelling the Convention to strengthen the Tammany cause by running a separate candidate. Their policy, in brief, was to get as many rival party candidates in the canvass as possible, in order to weaken the prospects of Tammany's opponents, and inversely improve the chances of their own nominee. The possibility of having to contend against a single man in the Mayoralty struggle, on whom all opposition voters of whatever party would solidly unite, was something which caused the corruptionists the most unpleasant feelings, agitating them with visions of approaching disaster and election from office. Tammany's tactics were first openly developed on Thursday evening, the 6th inst., at a meeting of the Republican General Committee, at which a straightforward Republican moved, as an amendment, "that the secretaries of the respective associations at last the various certificates of election, and act with the inspectors appointed by the Presidents as Inspectors of Election." In offering the resolution the intention was to give the officers of some of the doubtful Assembly District Associations, authority to reject all delegates of recognized Tammany tendencies. Its introduction, however, was received with boisterous opposition on the part of a crowd of Tammany sympathizers, who "packed" the meeting. The resolution was finally adopted, although a daring attempt was made to make it appear otherwise on counting the vote. Subsequently the following resolution was proposed:

Resolved, That in any nominating Convention of such shall meet under the authority of the Central Republican Committee, no person shall be eligible as a delegate who directly or indirectly has been appointed under the Democratic City Government.

Several political schemers undertook to alter the purport of the resolution, but it was ultimately adopted, after a company of "outsiders" had been expelled from the assembly. At the commencement of the proceedings, the Republican backsliders were confident of their ability to mould the Committee to suit their own purposes; but when their overthrow became apparent, they determined, by the advice of two Tammany leaders, to call another meeting. On the Monday night following the meeting, the Tammany Republicans furnished another exhibition of their tactics at the First Assembly District Republican Association gathering. Our exposure of the political trickery which was practised on that occasion has been fully confirmed by Mr. JOSEPH J. SCULLY, Vice-President of the Association. That gentleman says that the Association had "the misfortune to be presided over by the notoriously corrupt Tammany politician, Police Commissioner HANK SMITH," and that "the present respectable members on presenting themselves, found the room packed with ununiformed policemen and Ring politicians, notably the members of the First Ward Tammany Hall General Committee, assembled together for the purpose of manipulating the meeting in the interest of the Ring." He also says that the legitimate members of the Association held another meeting, at which they denounced Mr. SMITH for his political knavery, and deposed him from office, besides resolving to sever all political connection with him in the future.

On Wednesday last, FRANK RAYMOND, a reputed Republican, enjoying a position under the Democratic Board of Public Works, was ordered to take the Tammany workmen of his district to the polls at the Republican primary election to be held on Monday night next in the Twenty-first District, and to have them vote for the ticket headed by the name of CHARLES H. COOPER. The latter holds a clerkship under Police Commissioner MANIERRE. The election of himself and his associates on the ticket was desired in order to have them assist in executing Tammany's programme at the Republican County Convention. A meeting of the Eleventh District Association was held three nights ago, during which some Tammany Republicans adroitly slipped through a resolution, instructing the delegates to the Convention not to vote for any persons except recognized members of the Republican Party. The action was solely prompted by a desire to prevent the election of an outside anti-Tammany man for Mayor. At present there are several associations where the Tammany Republicans are dominant, including the First, Fourth, Sixth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Sixteenth, and Twenty-third District organizations. Active also exist in the Fifth and Tenth District Associations—one faction in each being out-and-out Republicans. The remainder are Tammany Republicans. Several members of the doubtful associations are known to be office-holders under the Ring. Their names are withheld for the present, in the hope that they will renew their allegiance to their party. Their defeat is reported to be certain in case they oppose the action of the genuine Republicans. Since the Tammany leaders discovered that they were in danger of losing control of the Republican nominations, they have resorted to bribes and threats for the purpose of effecting their infamous designs. Yesterday they endeavored to suborn a member of the Republican General Committee by offering him four political offices in case he would vote this evening to rescind the action of the Committee at the last meeting. His name is known, but it is not made public at present on account of the belief that he will refuse to comply with the base proposition. At the close of business hours, yesterday, TWEED declined, it is said, to attend to anything exceptin matters relating to the meeting of the Republican Committee, to be held this evening. Every vote, however, will be closely watched this evening, and the position of every man will be ascertained. Those who fight the Administration Republicans in the interest of Tammany will be regarded as traitors to their party, and will be ostracized in the future. They will be considered mercenaries, whose influence has been purchased by the money which TWEED and his fellow-conspirators have liberally dispensed among Tammany Republicans. On Thursday night "HANK" SMITH beguiled several Republicans into attending a private assemblage at the Cooper Institute, at which he persuaded them to make a call for a meeting to take place this evening. There were some gentlemen present who were unaware of SMITH's real design in demanding another meeting of the Committee. It is to be hoped that these misguided persons will completely renounce the leadership of SMITH and his hired assailants, this evening, and that they will unite with true Republicans.

On Thursday afternoon two prominent Tammany Republicans, one an ex-Surrogate and the other an ex-Marshal, were seen in private consultation with PETER B. SWEENY, at the latter's office, in regard to the arrangement of the Republican "slate." The latter is about to make a great effort to break it.

THE ANTI-RING TICKET COMPLETE.

J. Nelson Tappan for Controller, Josiah W. Bowen for Sheriff, and Ernest Conradus for County Clerk—Messrs. Flynn, Knox and Herman Nominated for Coroners—Harmony and Enthusiasm—Speech by Mr. Clinton.

The County Convention of the Anti-Ring Democracy reassembled in Apollo Hall, last evening, to complete their nominations for City and County officers for the coming election. The hall was filled with delegates and friends of the movement, and all seemed animated with the most brilliant hopes of success. W. C. BARRETT, Esq., the President of the Convention, called the assembly to order at 8 o'clock, and expressed his gratification at the harmony and good feeling that characterized the proceedings of the Convention at their meeting last Monday night, and hoped that the same kind spirit and fraternal feeling would be exhibited now when they had met to complete the ticket. They would all recollect that at the last meeting a committee of one from each Ward was appointed to present candidates for the balance of the ticket, and he would now call upon the Chairman to present the report of the Committee.

Hon. JOHN FOX, the Chairman, then read the names of the following gentlemen who had been agreed upon as candidates:

For Controller—J. NELSON TAPPAN, of the Twenty-first Ward.

For Sheriff—JOSIAH W. BROWN, of the Fifteenth Ward.

For County Clerk—ERNEST CONRADUS, of the Eighteenth Ward.

For Coroners—IGNATIUS FLYNN, of the First Ward; Dr. KNOX, of the Ninth Ward; and Dr. AUGUST HERMAN, of the Eleventh Ward.

A motion was made and seconded that the report of the Committee be accepted, and the nominations indorsed by the Convention. This was put to vote and responded to by one unanimous "aye," which was followed by three rousing cheers for the ticket.

On motion of ROSWELL D. HATCH, Esq., the Committee of one from each Ward was ordered to continue in power as an Executive Committee, to carry on the canvass and transact the business of the organization during the campaign.

On motion a committee of five, consisting of H. L. Clinton, Jno. Fox, Gen. Barnum, Peter Calkin and Jas. McLean, was appointed to inform the candidates of their nomination by this Convention.

SPEECH OF MR. CLINTON.

In answer to repeated calls, HENRY L. CLINTON, Esq., took the platform and addressed the Convention. He congratulated them on the perfect harmony that had attended all their proceedings, and said they had embarked in a noble movement—a movement for the destruction of the most dangerous and the most corrupt combination, called a "Ring," that had ever existed in this City. [Applause.] The movement would not cease till that combination was utterly destroyed, root and branch, and honest and faithful men were placed in office in this City. They had put at the head of their ticket a man whose election was as certain, in his opinion, as that time should roll on till the 8th of November, [great applause;] a man who in an honest election was never to be defeated; a man who had succeeded against the "Ring" and against all other corrupt combinations; a man who could beat everything except in retreat; a man who could not be bought, coaxed or driven from the field by all the money or persuasions or threats of the "Ring." [Great applause.] He would relax no effort to insure the success of the ticket, and he would now call upon the audience to present the report of the Committee.

Hon. JOHN FOX, the Chairman, then read the names of the following gentlemen who had been agreed upon as candidates:

For Controller—J. NELSON TAPPAN, of the Twenty-first Ward.

For Sheriff—JOSIAH W. BROWN, of the Fifteenth Ward.

For County Clerk—ERNEST CONRADUS, of the Eighteenth Ward.

For Coroners—IGNATIUS FLYNN, of the First Ward; Dr. KNOX, of the Ninth Ward; and Dr. AUGUST HERMAN, of the Eleventh Ward.

A motion was made and seconded that the report of the Committee be accepted, and the nominations indorsed by the Convention. This was put to vote and responded to by one unanimous "aye," which was followed by three rousing cheers for the ticket.

On motion of ROSWELL D. HATCH, Esq., the Committee of one from each Ward was ordered to continue in power as an Executive Committee, to carry on the canvass and transact the business of the organization during the campaign.

On motion a committee of five, consisting of H. L. Clinton, Jno. Fox, Gen. Barnum, Peter Calkin and Jas. McLean, was appointed to inform the candidates of their nomination by this Convention.

SPEECH OF MR. CLINTON.

In answer to repeated calls, HENRY L. CLINTON, Esq., took the platform and addressed the Convention. He congratulated them on the perfect harmony that had attended all their proceedings, and said they had embarked in a noble movement—a movement for the destruction of the most dangerous and the most corrupt combination, called a "Ring," that had ever existed in this City. [Applause.] The movement would not cease till that combination was utterly destroyed, root and branch, and honest and faithful men were placed in office in this City. They had put at the head of their ticket a man whose election was as certain, in his opinion, as that time should roll on till the 8th of November, [great applause;] a man who in an honest election was never to be defeated; a man who had succeeded against the "Ring" and against all other corrupt combinations; a man who could beat everything except in retreat; a man who could not be bought, coaxed or driven from the field by all the money or persuasions or threats of the "Ring." [Great applause.] He would relax no effort to insure the success of the ticket, and he would bring to his support a mass of voters that would astonish all who were not aware of the feeling that exists in this City. Mr. CLINTON then spoke of the Rochester Convention and the 1,500 thieves and vagabonds that TWEED took with him to the Rochester Convention to pull the wool over the eyes of that body so that they should not examine the merits of the Reform Democracy. Mayor HALL, he said, spent a large share of his valuable time in torturing the English language into wretched puns, but the last one he had yet got off was that the two great powers in Tammany Hall at the present were A. OAKEY HALL and Alcohol. [Laughter and applause.] The speaker then reviewed the career of OAKEY HALL from the time he emerged from a Know-nothing lodge and employed his time in drafting Republican commissions for the Government of this City, until he landed in the ranks of the Democracy and was taken into the bosom of the "Ring." The Tammany Ring had the impudence to accuse the Reform Democracy of turning their backs upon the Democratic Party, and yet they have done nothing since they had been in power but form coalitions with the opposite party. They owed their political existence today to a coalition formed with the unprincipled Republicans in the last Legislature. [Applause.] The Departments were full of Republican office-holders, and they had selected the worst Republicans at that—men who were in bad odor with their own party; men like "Hank" SMITH and BEN. MANIERRE, who would act as their tools and lure the Republican Party, year after year, into the nomination of an independent ticket in order to insure the success of the Ring. [Applause.] When they did appoint any Democrats to office they generally brought them from the rural districts. A year ago he had occasion to go to urge the claims of a young Democrat of his acquaintance for a certain position and he found the appointment had already been given to a man in the West from Arkansas. It turned out that he was a man who had done service during the war, but his service was on the rebel side. [A voice, "Name the fellow." You have hit it, said the speaker; I have nothing to say against the gentleman; he did right in getting the office, if he could, but he believed that equally able and efficient young men could be found in New-York, without going all the way to Arkansas for them. [Applause.] After dwelling at some length upon the corrupt and anti-Democratic management of affairs by the "Ring" that now rules the City, the speaker closed with the watch-word, "Labor and victory; one and inseparable."

On motion, the Convention then adjourned sine die.

THE CANDIDATES.

Mr. G. NELSON TAPPAN, the candidate for Controller, is a well-known citizen, carrying on the business of a banker and broker in Wall-street, and is universally esteemed for his high character and integrity.

Mr. JOSIAH W. BROWN, the candidate for Sheriff, is a merchant, and was formerly in the Tax Commissioner's office under the old Board of Tax Commissioners. He is a man of prompt business habits, sterling honesty, and would make an excellent Sheriff.

ERNEST CONRADUS, the candidate for County Clerk, is a highly-respected German citizen of the Eighteenth Ward, exceedingly popular with his countrymen, and in every way qualified for the office to which he has been nominated.

The candidates for Coroners are all men eminently fit for the position. Coroner FLYNN has already served one term as Coroner, and Drs. KNOX and HERMAN are physicians of good repute in their respective Wards.

The Eighth Assembly District Republicans—Sharp Reply to Mayor Hall.

A mass-meeting of the Woodford and Kaufman Club of the Eighth Assembly District was held last evening, at No. 274 Grand-street, Mr. JAMES A. LUCAS in the chair. Resolutions were adopted in support of the entire Republican ticket. The following was also adopted:

Resolved, That we heartily join with our German brethren in rejoicing at the glorious victories of their united fatherland, and cordially hope that the efforts already made to establish a Republic in sunny France may result in a permanent success.

Marshal SHARPE, in an address on the issues of the contest, took occasion to reply to Mayor HALL's denial of the correctness of the census returns, and showed from the Mayor's own admissions that the charges of Tammany frauds and repeatings were true. He strongly condemned the political character of Mayor HALL, and added that the Government which suppressed rebellion in the South, even when supported by brave men, would not shrink from preserving the purity of the ballot-box when contaminated by thieves, bullies and swindlers. Addresses were delivered by Hon. W. A. DARLING and others, and the meeting terminated.

Democratic Repudiation of Col. Rafferty in the Fourth Not-Jersey District—Letter from Judge Haines.

W. H. HUNT, Esq., of Schooley's Mountain, whose family have for many years been intimate with Judge HAINES, one of the most influential Democrats in the Fourth District of New-Jersey, recently wrote to the Judge, asking his advice in regard to his duty towards the present Democratic candidate for Congress in that district. Judge HAINES' answer contains the following points: "I regard the nomination of Col. RAFFERTY as irregular and a fraud upon the party, and such as should absolve every man from the obligation of supporting it. The nomination was procured through a direct and corrupt use of money." "It is conceded by his friends, and I am informed, boasted of by Mr. RAFFERTY, that men were present attending the primary meetings and voted for delegates to the Convention who were known to be favorable to him, and that large sums of money were paid to carry for this influence." "We are entitled to be represented by one of good repute for honesty and moral duty. The reputation of Mr. RAFFERTY for moral duty is, unfortunately, against him." "If nominations under such circumstances must bind a party, then the days of our free institutions are numbered." "To abstain from voting is, to me but half the duty, and we must, therefore, cast our votes for Mr. HULL, who, although differing from us on political party questions, is believed to be a worthy and competent man, and on any other than a party question is entirely reliable."

As an honest man and a Christian gentleman, Judge HAINES is universally respected and admired, and the honest expression of his opinion, and of his reasons for declining to vote for the Democratic nominee, will have a very damaging effect on his prospects.

Political Brevities.

The Thirteenth Assembly District Soldiers' and Sailors' Campaign Club, last evening adopted a resolution urging the nomination of Col. A. J. H. DUGRO for member of Congress. Capts. HYMAN, SCHAEFFER and GILLS were appointed a committee to present his name to the Congressional Convention.

At a meeting of the Fourth Assembly District Soldiers' and Sailors' Association, held at No. 46 East Broadway, last evening, Dr. HANS POWELL was unanimously recommended for the nomination of School Trustee.

A mass-meeting was held last evening at Brevoort Hall, corner of Fifty-fourth-street and Third-avenue, and another banner bearing the name of CHARLES LOEW was raised there. Speeches were made by Judge CURTIS, WM. C. GOVES, and others.

The Fifteenth Ward William M. Tweed Association held a meeting last night at the Liberty House, No. 40 West Houston-street. Mr. JOHN A. CAROLIN offered his resignation as President, which was accepted, and Mr. JOHN A. DUNN was elected in his stead, after which JOHN A. CAROLIN was unanimously recommended to be nominated for member of Assembly for the Seventh District.

At a meeting of the Eighth Assembly District Union Republican Association, held last evening at No. 274 Grand-street, Mr. JOHN O'BRIEN in the chair, Mr. WM. P. ALLEN, delegate to the General Committee, sent in his resignation, which was accepted, and the President, Mr. O'BRIEN, elected in his stead.

A meeting of the Ninth District Woodford and Kaufman Club was held last evening in Bleecker-street, near Morton, Mr. GEO. LELAND presiding. Addresses were delivered by E. DELAFIELD SMITH and Major BULLARD. The latter said more was to be feared from the miscounting of the ballots by the canvassers than from stuffing the boxes, and warned the party to have no affiliation with Republicans who held position under Tammany. He said that MANIERRE and SMITH had been paid their price with office for assenting to the appointment of dishonest canvassers, and he would sooner counsel affiliation with the Young Democracy than associations with Tammany Republicans, who were ready to betray their party whenever occasion required. Songs were sung by a glee club, and the meeting was very enthusiastic.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF.

NEW-YORK.

JAMES H. LYNCH was brought up, yesterday, before United States Commissioner SHIELDS, charged with a felonious assault on JOHN COLLINS. The parties were seamen employed on board the steamer Glasgow, from Liverpool to New-York, and had an altercation on the 9d inst., when the prisoner presented a revolver at the head of COLLINS and shot him in the throat. He also stabbed him with a knife, and from the effects of these injuries COLLINS has been ever since in a dangerous condition. The prisoner was held in default of $5,000 bail.

The Board of Health held another adjourned meeting, yesterday, but transacted no business beyond receiving complaints from the Trustees of the Inebriate Asylum and Widows' Home about throwing of offal in the Lower Bay.

The religious services at Steinway Hall, commenced by the Swedenborgians, last Sunday evening, will be continued to-morrow evening. Rev. J. C. ADEN will officiate, and give a discourse on Physiology. His subject, "The Atonement a Work of Healing," developing the Swedenborgian view of the atonement.

The California fast-freight line have just made another reduction in rates from New-York to San Francisco, Sacramento, Stockville and San Jose, Cal., as follows: First-class goods, per 100 pounds, are now reduced to $6 50; second-class, $6 50; third-class, $4 50, and fourth-class, $4. Eleven days is the quickest time yet made for first-class goods from ocean to ocean.

On Thursday evening last CHAS. MCCULLUM, a resident of Paterson, N. J., was robbed of $6,500 in a house of ill-repute, No. 56 West Houston-street, by JENNIE ALLEN, by means of the usual method. He discovered his loss immediately, and seizing the woman, threatened to shoot her if she refused to return him his money. He succeeded in obtaining $6,400, but the remainder she refused to account for. She was arrested, and on being brought before Judge COX at the Jefferson Market Police Court, yesterday, was held for trial.

Several of the largest butcher firms, yesterday afternoon, announced that the immense cost of fuel during the past heated term had entirely swallowed up what ought to be their profits as to make it impossible for them to pay up their little bills at the slaughter-house. They declare that they hope to make an installment of about sixteen cents on the dollar—that is, 17, after paying the ice companies, such a residue is forthcoming.

A meeting of the survivors of the late First Regiment New-York Volunteers, Col. W. B. HUDSON, who served in the Mexican War, will be held on Wednesday evening, Oct. 19, at 8 o'clock, at the Odd-Fellows' Assembly Rooms, No. 276 Grand-street, for the purpose of adopting measures to secure the immediate payment of the money appropriated for their relief by the Legislature of 1870.

The rooms of the New-York Liberal Club were last evening crowded with a large audience of ladies and gentlemen to listen to the reading, by Mr. JAMES E. MURDOCH, of a paper on "Bain's Visible Speech, or the Science of Universal Alphabetics." The reading was listened to with great interest. Many new and interesting facts were developed, and the subject was presented in a most attractive form.

The Young Men's Universalist Association of the City of New-York has been formed for the purpose of spreading the knowledge of Universalism, and for bringing within its circle and influence the young men of this City. The formal opening will take place on Monday evening next, at its rooms, No. 1,262 Broadway. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Chapin, Hon. Horace Greeley, Hon. P. T. Barnum, Rev. Jas. M. Pullman, (President of the Association,) Rev. E. C. Sweetser, Rev. E. C. Bolles, Rev. Chas. Fluhrer and Rev. Chas. F. Lee.

The delegates of the North-eastern Saengerbund, last evening, held a meeting at the Germania Assembly Rooms, Mr. HEINRICH in the chair, and action was taken to complete the Festival Committee for the twelfth national saengerfest, to be held in this City next Summer, for which two members of each society represented in the Saengerbund have been selected. The permanent organization of the Festival Committee, and the appointment of the sub-committees were postponed until a future meeting.

On Wednesday night last, at a late hour, Sergt. DOUGLASS, of the Sixth Ward Police, ascertained that two men had been seen in the premises of PHILIP HIRSHKIND, dealer in clothing, at No. 114 White-street. He made the necessary investigations and placing officers in the house proceeded to make a search, finding in the cellar JOHN BAXTER, alias "Dutch Jack," sixteen years of age, and THOMAS DALY, fifteen years of age, both residing at No. 103 Bayard-street. Both admitted that they had broken open the glass fanlight over the door. They had packed up a quantity of cassimere cloth valued at $3,000, which, they stated, they had intended to throw out of a window into the street to confederates, if the Police had not discovered their movements. A quantity of sewing-silk, valued at $600, was also found packed up ready for removal. When the accused were arraigned before Alderman COMAN, yesterday at the Tombs, they pleaded guilty and were duly committed for trial. A search is being made for the remainder of this daring gang of burglars.

BROOKLYN.

Rev. JOHN DUNCAN, D. D., was installed as pastor of the Central Baptist Church of Williamsburg on Thursday evening last. The services were opened with the singing of an anthem by the choir, and a solemn invocation by Rev. J. B. BRACKETT, pastor of the First Baptist Church of the district. Rev. J. H. BRONT, of the South Ninth-street Congregational Church, read a Scripture lesson, and was followed by Rev. Dr. D. MOORE, who delivered the discourse of the occasion. Rev. J. B. BRACKETT extended the right hand of fellowship to the newly-installed pastor, after which an address to both pastor and people was made by Rev. Mr. ARGELL, of the Sixth-street Church, New-York. The services were finally concluded with singing the Doxology, and a benediction by the Rev. Dr. DUNCAN, who subsequently received a warm welcome at the hands of his new parishioners.

DAVID H. PATTEN, who was arrested for bigamy on Monday last, was discharged yesterday by Justice WALSH, the plaintiff, his mother-in-law, having failed to appear.

THOMAS MURPHY, who was found guilty of manslaughter in the third degree in the Court of Over and Terminer, on Friday, was sentenced, yesterday, by Judge KINSELLA to imprisonment in the Penitentiary for two years.

The Brooklyn Academy of Design will open for the Fall and Winter season on Tuesday next. Those desiring admission are requested to make application at the rooms of the Managing Committee, at the corner of Court and Joralemon streets. This is an institution which, with a little encouragement, will be productive of much instruction to many. Many of the best artists in the city, chief among whom is Mr. WHITTAKER, will be present here, night after night, to teach the pupils.

NEW-JERSEY.

On Thursday the Orange Orphan Society met at the Methodist Church. Dr. ADAMS, Pastor of Trinity Church, opened the meeting. Hon. WILLIAM PIERSON, in behalf of a society for the education of poor children, tendered to the Society the sum of $5,000. The Society accepted the donation with thanks. The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were read and accepted, and it was decided to occupy their new buildings at once, and furnish it as fast as possible.

It is estimated that there are 4,000 negro voters in New-Jersey, and it is believed that the census may show even a larger number. This is more than half the number of negroes in New-York State, and is a larger number in proportion to the whole number of inhabitants than in any other State north of Maryland.

A meeting will be held to-night, at Library Hall, Jersey City, for the purpose of taking preliminary steps to secure a large park in the central portion of the present city. The ground proposed is the meadow-land lying at the foot of Bergen Hill, and reaching from Grand-street to Newark-avenue. The plot contains about a hundred acres.

Today the Hudson and Oneida Boat Clubs, of Jersey City, will row a match-race of three miles, of Pleasant Valley. Both Clubs possess good oarsmen, and they have already engaged in one six-oared race which resulted in favor of the Oneidas. The steam-boat Virginia Seymour, chartered for the invited guests, judges and reporters, will leave the foot of Morris-street, Jersey City, at 3 P. M.

Two Russians were arrested in New-York, a few weeks since, on a charge of counterfeiting, and papers found in their possession, implicated one ANTON TOCKERT, a resident of Jersey City. A warrant was issued for TOCKERT's arrest, but he suddenly disappeared. On Thursday evening he was seen in Paterson by Officer BODEN, and followed to West End, where he was arrested by Capt. JAHN, to whom BODEN had telegraphed, and who had the warrant. TOCKERT was then sent to New-York, where he will answer before a United States Commissioner.
